What a spectacular exhibition we had! What a great teamwork! Thank God for His unfathomable Mercy and Grace upon us! Please read the following words a continuation of last week's note written by Karen Warner. Here I like to highlight certain areas worth mentioning.

I would like to extend my heartfelt appreciation to Karen Warner, Eucharistic Revival Parish-level coordinator, and the dedicated committee, which includes all ministries of St. Ignatius Parish, especially the Catholic Daughters as its main sponsors and the Knights of Columbus as its co-sponsor. They played pivotal roles in making the Eucharistic Miracles Exhibition a resounding success. Their unwavering commitment, meticulous planning, and tireless efforts have been instrumental in bringing this remarkable event to fruition. Their contributions to the Eucharistic Miracles Exhibition have left an indelible mark, and their commitment to this meaningful cause is deserving of our heartfelt appreciation.

Our exhibition consisted of seven sections. The first section includes Eucharistic miracles designed and created by Blessed Carlo Acutis. I extend our thanks to the Knights of Columbus at St. Joseph Parish in Garden City for graciously providing the material for the first section.

The second section was designed and created by AnsyMary Antony, our Digital Evangelism and Communications. I want to take a moment to express our heartfelt gratitude for AnsyMary's exceptional contribution to the Eucharistic Revival Exhibition. The Eucharistic comparative study was an invaluable addition to the event, enriching our understanding of this sacred sacrament in a profound way. Not only did her study educate us, but it also sparked meaningful conversations and reflections among attendees. Her work significantly contributed to the exhibition's success and made it a more enriching experience for all of us. In response to many requests, our parish will publish this comparative study as a book for our religious education students to deepen their understanding of the presence of our Lord Jesus in the Eucharist.

The third section was dedicated to displaying the vestments and liturgical objects used for the Catholic Holy Mass. Rev. Jacob Varughese, Tony Condrón, and their team's painstaking efforts have transformed the exhibition into a profound and enlightening experience for all who visit. The attention to detail and the aesthetic presentation of these sacred vestments and objects have not only preserved the rich traditions of the Catholic Church but have also allowed the public to glimpse the beauty and significance of the Mass in a tangible way. Your contribution to this exhibition is invaluable, and your passion for presenting our spiritual heritage is truly commendable.

The fourth section, Kid's Corner, was arranged by Nivia Sotto, Ellen Lentini, and the religious education team. We want to acknowledge Jennifer Lentini for proposing and arranging "a selfie with Jesus and walk with Jesus' footprints challenge." Children thoroughly enjoyed various activities in this section, and we appreciate your contribution to making a difference in children's lives.

The fifth section was a "prayer corner" arranged by Migdalia Vasquez and Hispanic Ministries. What a beautiful presentation and a prayerful invitation for people to spend time in the adoration chapel. Thank you, St. Ignatius Nuns, for praying for those intentions placed in the "prayer intention box," and thank you, Ansy Mary Antony, for preparing a prayer card for people to keep as a souvenir of this exhibition.

The sixth section was a stall that displayed gift items and books for a freewill offering. Thank you, Catholic Daughters, for monitoring that section, and the seventh section was a video presentation arranged by Ansy Mary Antony. Thank you, Juan Madrano, for assisting her in making this exhibition center with the harmonious melodies that provided a sublime backdrop, transporting visitors to a place of contemplation and reverence.

A special appreciation to the coordinator of this event, Karen Warner, who reached out to several parishes, inviting people to this exhibition. Thank you, Suzanne MacCartny, for your support in this regard, and all our wonderful parishioners and dedicated staff for your unwavering support of all our activities with charitable hearts, loving spirits, and active participation.

A quick word of appreciation to Peggy Gill for organizing "Rosary Month" with the daily recitation of the Holy Rosary led by different ministries and a special international Rosary for world peace in different languages. I acknowledge the role of co-leaders Karen Warner, Anne Napoli, and Cynthia Diaz for your presence and leadership every day during this Rosary.

Once again, Martha's Guild beautifully adorned our altar with Fall decorations: great job, Peggy Gill and team.

Overall, November is a time for reflection, gratitude, and honoring the past, whether through religious observances, commemorations of historical events, or personal traditions that celebrate and remember loved ones. Thank you, Pam Flanigan, and the Ministry of Consolation, for your incredible work honoring our deceased loved ones during funerals and memorial Masses, especially on November 2nd, "All Souls Day" remembrance Holy Mass. Let us be grateful for each other and continue to "fight the good fight" for God's glory and honor.

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

We all want to feel special and be noticed. We see it in Adam and Eve's decision to eat the fruit in the garden after the snake promises "your eyes will be opened and you will be like gods." (Gen 3:5) The scribes and the Pharisees in today's Gospel certainly appear to fall into this category of wanting to be noticed: "All their works are performed to be seen," Jesus says. To be clear, we ARE each unique children of God: chosen by him and called by name. We are "wonderfully made" by the Lord (Ps 139:14), and that alone makes us valuable beyond measure. The problem arises when we begin to see our value as something we are responsible for on our own. We no longer give glory to God and acknowledge him as the fount of all good things. Instead, we are tempted to take credit for ourselves - that was the error of the scribes and the Pharisees, and it is one against which we should guard ourselves.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Today's readings are instructive and, frankly, a good reminder that as God's beloved children baptized into Christ, we are called to a higher standard. What is this higher standard? First, it entails "[giving] thanks to God unceasingly," as St. Paul said in today's reading. It also involves practicing what we preach in a way the Pharisees do not. At the heart of Jesus' message today is telling us, his followers, how we are meant to live. We are to follow Jesus' words and strive to imitate his actions with humility and love. Does this mean loving unconditionally? It does. Does this mean not seeking places of honor but rather having a servant's attitude? It does. Are these postures and attitudes that come naturally to us as human beings? As descendants of Adam and Eve? Perhaps not. But if we wish to make Jesus the master of our lives, let us discern where we can be serving others better and putting our energy into the work of building God's kingdom.

PRAY The Catechism calls humility the "foundation of prayer." (CCC 2559) Let us pray this week for the humility to do God's will without any praise or recognition. Let us ask the Holy Spirit for wisdom to know what the Lord wants from us and to joyfully fulfill that call even if it means working in the shadows where no one will notice.

Gospel verse for reflection

Do not be called 'Master';
you have but one master, the Christ.
The greatest among you must be your servant.
Whoever exalts himself will be humbled;
but whoever humbles himself will be exalted.

You must ask God to give you power to fight against the sin of pride which is your greatest enemy - the root of all that is evil, and the failure of all that is good. For God resists the proud.

Thought of the week

*As disciples of Jesus, our Master,

Should We Let Others See
What We Do for God?

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus warns the people about some of their leaders. They wore special clothes and made sure that people saw them giving to the poor. They also got the best seats at gatherings. These men were only concerned about outward things and not about being holy and loving in their hearts.

Our Lord wants us to be holy on the inside- to love Him and to love everybody else with our hearts. But we don't always have to show it on the outside. Sometimes we pray together or help people when others can see us, but we should often pray and do good in ways that people won't see, too.

Still, there are some people who do wear special clothes and should get places of honour. Priests and religious sisters and brothers wear clothes that help us to know that they have special jobs. They aren't trying to get attention, but it is a sign that they have given themselves to God. We treat them with extra respect because they have dedicated their lives to God.

What was the last thing Our Lord said in today's Gospel reading? Look in the mirror to find out!

Blessed John Duns Scotus
November 8

JOHN DUNS SCOTUS WAS BORN AROUND 1270 IN SCOTLAND. HE WAS A GOOD BOY AND WAS TAUGHT WELL BY HIS PARENTS AND PRIESTS.

It is our duty to honour the Mother of God!

HE HAD TROUBLE LEARNING, SO HE PRAYED TO OUR LADY. THEN HE BECAME VERY INTELLIGENT.

Holy Mother, please help me to learn to read and write!

HE BECAME A FRANCISCAN AND CONTINUED STUDYING.

...so God must know all things!

WHEN THE KING WANTED THE PROFESSORS TO SIDE WITH HIM AGAINST THE POPE, JOHN REFUSED.

I will remain loyal to the Vicar of Christ.

ONE OF HIS GREATEST TEACHINGS WAS THAT MARY WAS CONCEIVED WITHOUT ORIGINAL SIN.

Christ had the power to redeem His mother before her birth.

FATHER JOHN, YOU ARE BEING SENT TO GERMANY.

I will leave right away!

FOR POLITICAL REASONS JOHN WAS SENT TO TEACH IN COLOGNE, GERMANY. HE DIED THERE AT THE AGE OF 43.

BLESSED JOHN KNEW THAT THERE IS NOTHING MORE IMPORTANT THAN KNOWING, LOVING, AND SERVING GOD. HE HAD A GREAT THIRST TO UNDERSTAND HIM BETTER SO HE STUDIED HARD. THE MORE HE UNDERSTOOD ABOUT GOD THE MORE HE COULD TEACH OTHERS ABOUT HIM. WE SHOULD PRAY FOR GOOD TEACHERS.

One Minute Meditations

St. Margaret of Scotland

A Hungarian princess, St. Margaret grew up in luxury and privilege, but she never lost sight of those in need and her duty to serve them. After the Battle of Hastings, her family fled to Scotland where King Malcom III sheltered them and eventually married Margaret. Although a queen, her private life was austere, dedicated to prayer and serving the poor—even washing beggars' feet. She is remembered for her life of piety, kindness, and generosity.

Christ the King

What does it mean to say Christ is King? Do we give Him our Sundays only, or the whole week? Set aside ten minutes for God. Offer Him the events of your day and say, "Your will be done."

"No servant can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and [the world]" (Luke 16:13).

Thanksgiving can inspire gratitude in action

St. Mother Teresa said, "It's not how much we give but how much love we put into giving." At Thanksgiving, we bask in the glow of our blessings but it's also a chance to share them with others. This is "gratitude in action:"

Be generous with your time. God can't be outdone in generosity. He gives life in His image and likeness. He gave the gift of Himself in Christ's offering on the Cross. In that spirit, how can you give of yourself? Prayerfully consider where and to whom you can give your time and attention.

Be generous with your patience. Ours is the God of second chances, generous with His mercy. Decide to generously give others the benefit of the doubt, allow room for good intentions, and forgive injuries. Love as God loves by extending patience and forgiveness without limit.

Be generous with your family.

Mother Teresa said, "If you want to bring happiness to the whole world, go home and love your family." Make your family your top priority and give your loved ones the very best of yourself.

Be generous with your joy. Holidays can be difficult for people without connections. Look for someone at church, at work, or in the neighborhood who might need a place to celebrate the holiday. Share holiday love and joy.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics pray for the dead?

The practice of praying for the dead is an Act of Mercy and has Scriptural roots: "Thus he made atonement for the dead that they might be absolved from their sin" (2 Maccabees 12:45-46). Someone who dies in God's friendship with sin on his soul must be purified before entering heaven. We can literally help souls get to heaven. Rest assured: if the person we've prayed for reaches heaven, the graces of those prayers are used to help other souls.

Dealing with loss and those left behind

Christians know that death leads to marvelous new life, but it is still difficult to lose someone we love. We take comfort knowing that we remain connected in the Communion of Saints, the spiritual solidarity binding the faithful on Earth, the souls in Purgatory, and the saints in Heaven. Still, finding or offering comfort after a death can be challenging.

Pray. Pray that the souls who have died may find their place in Heaven. Perhaps arrange to have that prayer included in the intentions during Mass in your parish. Including them in your daily prayers also helps to keep their intentions alive.

Be present. Attend the visitation or funeral. Such customs are part of honoring and praying for the deceased person and showing compassion to the living.

Offer material support. Bring a meal to the family. Mass cards, notes and phone calls can also offer comfort.

Contribute. Consider making a donation of time or money to organizations such as a local Hospice that provide grace and dignity to those dying.

from Scripture

Matthew 25:31-46, Showing mercy to the "least"

In this Gospel reading, Jesus describes the coming of the Son of Man, that is, of His glorious return on the last day. Jesus will appear at the end of time as the King of the nations and the Judge of history. Everyone who has ever lived, from the first to the last, from the greatest to the least, will stand before Christ. All of us will be judged on how we loved, especially how we treated "the least" who are suffering among us.

The specific criterion for judgment is the basis for the Corporal Works of Mercy, which are: feed the hungry and give drink to the thirsty, clothe the naked and welcome the stranger, care for the sick and imprisoned, and bury the dead.

In the end, we will be judged on our response to the suffering of others. Do we, like the "blessed," respond with compassion and mercy, or do we, like the others, turn a blind eye and do nothing? The goal is to see Christ in others and to minister to their needs accordingly.

Q & A How does the Church decide who is a saint?

There are many people in Heaven who are saints but whose names we may never know. They are uncanonized saints. Canonization is the formal process by which the Church identifies and determines whether someone has become a saint.

In its simplest form, official Church procedures detail three steps to recognizing a saint. First, the bishop of the diocese where the person died begins an extensive investigation. The results are passed to the Congregation for the Causes of Saints. If the Congregation approves, the prefect presents the cause to the pope. With the pope's approval, the petitioner becomes "venerable" and is called "Servant of God."

Next, "beatification," may come after further investigation and a miracle has proven to be attributed to the Servant of God's intercession after his or her death. Then the person can be called "Blessed."

Finally, canonization may follow additional investigation and a second miracle also proven to have occurred after the beatification and as a result of the candidate's intercession. After canonization, the "Blessed" is called "Saint."

Feasts & Celebrations

November 1 – All Saints Day (Holy Day of Obligation). In the early Church, there was a great desire to celebrate each of the martyrs. Because there were more martyrs than days of the year, Pope Gregory IV designated November 1 as All Saints Day. Celebrate the Saints by attending Mass.

November 10 – Pope St. Leo the Great (461). A native of Rome, St. Leo was elected pope while on a mission in Gaul. As pope, he defended the faith from heresy and promoted ecclesiastical unity.

November 18 – St. Rose Philippine Duchesne (1852). Born in Grenoble, France, she joined the Society of the Sacred Heart and came to America as a missionary. She opened the first free school for girls west of the Mississippi river, and the first Catholic school for Native Americans.

November 26 – Solemnity of Christ the King. God promised His people a king who would triumph over their enemies. Jesus is our King. In Baptism and Confirmation, we are brought under His kingship.

Prepare for the upcoming Sunday

Good News Reflection

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time , November 12, 2023

Pray: To follow Your ways, Lord, means giving up everything for You. It means leaving behind what dies in this life. It means walking towards the eternal abundance You provided on the cross for me. Give me the strength I need to say "yes", even though it is sometimes difficult. Amen.

Wisdom 6:12-16; Ps 63:2-8; 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18; Matthew 25:1-13

Trusting an illogical God

This Sunday's Gospel reading shows us what it means to be truly foolish. We believe in Christ -- good! We pray -- good! We put time into our faith growth and we value opportunities for more faith formation -- very wise! And we say that we trust God -- wonderful!

But what happens when God doesn't answer our prayers fast enough? What if we need Christ's loving embrace or his protection from evil and yet we're suffering with no end in sight? Where is Jesus then?

Usually, God's timing is not ours. We think we have the right idea about how soon God should intervene when we ask for his help. Right now is a good time for it, right? Of course! But perhaps not from God's perspective. (Why do we want to leave God in charge anyway, if he doesn't see things our way, huh?)

When we despair over unanswered prayer, the reality behind it is that we're emotionally unprepared for any timing that's different from what we think it should be. The foolish bridesmaids thought the groom would arrive before their lamps burned out. They thought they understood the situation. Do we?

Furthermore, if God's plans are illogical -- if they don't make sense to us -- we distrust them. And then we get ourselves into the mess of trying to handle things apart from God.

We cannot trust our logic. We cannot trust our perception or our understanding of the situations we're in. The sooner we decide to enjoy the absurdity of being a Christian, the sooner we will find out that God's ways are awesomely much, much better than anything we can imagine!

Questions for Personal Reflection:

What have you resisted doing because it doesn't make sense? What can you do, where can you turn, to whom can you go for help in discerning whether or not it's God's plan for you?

Questions for Community Faith Sharing:

How do you know when an illogical plan is really what God wants you to do? What's happened in your life that has taught you to trust the Holy Spirit's surprises? Share a lesson you learned when you weren't ready for God's plan because you didn't believe it.

Evangelio según San Mateo (Mt. 23, 1-12)

Evangelio
Mateo 23, 1-12

En aquel tiempo, Jesús dijo a las multitudes y a sus discípulos: "En la cátedra de Moisés se han sentado los escribas y fariseos. Hagan, pues, todo lo que les digan, pero no imiten sus obras, porque dicen una cosa y hacen otra. Hacen fardos muy pesados y difíciles de llevar y los echan sobre las espaldas de los hombres, pero ellos ni con el dedo los quieren mover. Todo lo hacen para que los vea la gente. Ensanchan las filacterias y las franjas del manto; les agrada ocupar los primeros lugares en los banquetes y los asientos de honor en las sinagogas; les gusta que los saluden en las plazas y que la gente los llame 'maestros'.

Ustedes, en cambio, no dejen que los llamen 'maestros', porque no tienen más que un Maestro y todos ustedes son hermanos. A ningún hombre sobre la tierra lo llamen 'padre', porque el Padre de ustedes es sólo el Padre celestial. No se dejen llamar 'guías', porque el 'guía' de ustedes es solamente Cristo. Que el mayor de entre ustedes sea su servidor, porque el que se enaltece será humillado y el que se humilla será enaltecido".

Palabra del Señor / Gloria a ti Señor Jesús

Reflexion Papa Francisco Jesús denuncia abiertamente algunos comportamientos negativos de los escribas y de algunos fariseos: «quieren el primer puesto en los banquetes y los primeros asientos en las sinagogas, que se les salude en las plazas» (v. 6-7).

Esta es la tentación que corresponde a la soberbia humana y que no siempre es fácil de vencer. Es la actitud de vivir solo por la apariencia... Después Jesús les da mandatos a sus discípulos: «no os dejéis llamar "Rabí", porque uno solo es vuestro Maestro, y vosotros sois todos hermanos. [...] Ni tampoco os dejéis llamar "Directores", porque uno solo es vuestro Director: el Cristo. El mayor entre vosotros será vuestro servidor» (vv. 8-11).

Nosotros discípulos de Jesús no debemos buscar título de honor, de autoridad o de supremacía. Yo os digo que a mí personalmente me duele ver a personas que psicológicamente viven corriendo detrás de la vanidad de las condecoraciones. Nosotros, discípulos de Jesús, no debemos hacer esto, ya que entre nosotros debe haber una actitud sencilla y fraterna. (11/05/2017 Angelus, Plaza S Pedro)
