Dear Lord, we thank You for this new day/week/month. Be

We surrender all of us into Your loving hands. Jesus we place our trust in You. Amen.

Repose prayers on Fridays

My dear brothers and sisters, at 3 0'clock on this Friday, let us thank God for His immense love and the great sacrifice He made for our salvation.

Lord we praise and thank You, for You paid a debt which You didn't owe, but the debt we owed, which we couldn't pay.

Pause.

As we pray this Chaplet of Divine Mercy, let us keep in mind, the Message of DIVINE MERCY; given to St. Faustina by Jesus - That God Loves all of us; no matter how great or how grave our sins are. Jesus wants us all to realize and to recognize that His Mercy is far greater than our sins. He wants us all to call upon Him with Trust ! To sincerely repent of our sins , to receive His forgiveness and Mercy and then most importantly, to let His Mercy flow through us to others .

Opening Prayer

You expired, Jesus, but the source of life gushed forth for souls, and the ocean of mercy opened up for the whole world. O Fount of Life, unfathomable Divine Mercy, envelop the whole world and empty Yourself out upon us.

(Repeat 3 times) O Blood and Water, which gushed forth from the Heart of Jesus as a fountain of Mercy for us, I trust in You!

The Our Father

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen

The Hail Mary

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee; blessed are thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.

Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

The Apostle's Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; He descended into hell; on the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

For each of the five decades

(On each "Our Father" bead of the rosary, pray)

Eternal Father, I offer you the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your Dearly Beloved Son, Our Lord, Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world.

[Fridays on Lent, before each decade]

1. We seek forgiveness for all the times we took Your love for granted, and failed to love You above all.

2. We seek forgiveness for all the times we went after our own desires and pleasures, instead of seeking Your Divine will.
3. We seek forgiveness for all the times we failed to do our duties and moral responsibilities, in the way we ought to do.
4. We seek forgiveness for all the times we ignored the real needs of those around us and led a self centered life.
5. We seek forgiveness for all the times we hurt You by our sins and even justified them.

(On each of the 10 “Hail Mary” beads, pray)

For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world.

Concluding prayer (Repeat 3 times)

Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One
have mercy on us and on the whole world. Amen.

Closing Prayer

Eternal God, in whom mercy is endless and the treasury of compassion inexhaustible, look kindly upon us and increase Your mercy in us, that in difficult moments we might not despair nor become despondent, but with great confidence submit ourselves to Your holy will, which is Love and Mercy itself. Silence

O Sacrament Most Holy, O Sacrament Divine,
All Praise and All Thanksgiving be every moment
Thine.(3)

Priest: You have given them Bread from Heaven

Response: Having within it all sweetness.

Lord Jesus Christ, You gave us the Eucharist, as the memorial of Your suffering and death. May our worship of this Sacrament of Your Body and Blood help us to experience the salvation You won for us, and the peace of the Kingdom where You live with the Father, and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen.

All stand.

Now let us listen to the Word of God.

1. October

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Jn 19:25-27

Standing by the cross of Jesus were his mother and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary of Magdala. When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple there whom he loved, he said to his mother, "Woman, behold, your son." Then he said to the disciple, "Behold, your mother." And from that hour the disciple took her into his home.

The word of God.

R: Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ.

Let us reflect on the Gospel we just heard. Here we can see that Jesus is giving us His own mother to be our mother, as He knows that she will surely lead us to Him. We can also see how perfectly He is doing His duty as a Son even in such pain. We too are invited to do our duties and responsibilities especially towards those who are exclusively entrusted in our care.

In this month of the Holy Rosary, let us hold our loving mother's hands and reflecting on the mysteries of the life of Jesus with her, and follow Him more closely.

(Spend some time in silence. Link this passage with the month of Rosary, and Mary's role in our lives, in leading us to Jesus.)

2.November

A reading from the holy Gospel according to
Jn 14:1-4

“Do not let your hearts be troubled. You have faith in God; have faith also in me. In my Father’s house there are many dwelling places. If there were not, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back again and take you to myself, so that where I am you also may be. Where I am going you know the way.”

The word of God.

R: Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ.

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ, let us reflect on the Gospel we just heard. Jesus died for us on the cross and paid for our sins. So the moment we repent of our sins from the heart, all our sins are completely wiped away. By His death and resurrection, He has ensured a place for us with Him. All we have to do, is to grab that privilege He is offering us, by completely believing in His saving love and amend our ways.

(Spend some time in silence. Link this passage with the month of all souls of our dearly departed, death, His coming as Christ the King and His immense love that He is waiting for us)

3. December

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Jn 3:16-18

For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through Him. Whoever believes in him will not be condemned, but whoever does not believe has already been condemned, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God.

The word of God.

R: Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ.

Quite often we reflect on the passion and crucifixion of Jesus, but very rarely reflect on His humbleness to become a human. In every single Mass, when the priest or deacon mix a drop of water with a greater amount of wine in the chalice, the prayer “By the mystery of this water and wine, may we come to share in the divinity of Christ, who humbled Himself to share in our humanity.” is said. This shows the significance of His incarnation. The water represents “we , the people” and wine represents the Blood of Christ. Jesus was fully divine though He became fully human for our sake. Imagine the depth of His love, to willingly and knowingly go through what He underwent from the moment of His conception to His crucifixion and ascension. In the womb of Mary, He spent 9 months just like a normal human baby. Yet how easily we get impatient while waiting. We think of the babies in the womb as part of respect life. We should also think about the generosity of God to become flesh. If that didn't happen, there is no crucifixion or resurrection. That's why on every Sunday, when we say the Nicene creed, we bow at the part where we say "by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the virgin Mary and became man." That's why pray the Angelus at 6am, 12noon and 6pm. In this advent it is also good to reflect a little more about the exemplary obedience He showed to Mary and Joseph.

(Spend some time in silence. Link this passage with the incarnation of Jesus, the word made flesh, 9 months in the womb of Mary, 33 years of earthly life and His immense love for us, which made Him do all that)

4. January

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mt 12:46-50

While he was still speaking to the crowds, his mother and his brothers appeared outside, wishing to speak with Him. Someone told Him, “Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, asking to speak with You.” But He said in reply to the one who told Him, “Who is my mother? Who are my brothers?” And stretching out his hand toward his disciples, he said, “Here are my mother and my brothers. For whoever does the will of my heavenly Father is my brother, and sister, and mother.”

The word of God.

R: Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ.

Let us reflect on the Gospel we just heard. This Gospel passage invites us to do the will of God. In fact only when we do that, we are doing something for the greater glory of God. When do we like someone else’s likes? Obviously love and trust are the two key factors involved. Jesus humbled Himself as a baby ,and died on the cross for our redemption. Do we need anything more to realize His great sacrificial love and self denial involved in it. He is concerned about our ultimate good, our salvation. It is when we give priority to our earthly matters more than what really matters, we doubt Him and His love for us, His plans for us. He will arrange everything in such a way that we will get closer to Him each day. In order to do His will, we must first discern His will. But how? For that we have to be in constant communication with Him. Through our silent prayers, scripture readings, advice from our loved ones, the grace from the frequent reception of sacraments. Who is our role model for doing God's will. Of course Jesus, who went to the extent of dying while doing God's will. Then comes our Mother Mary, whose Solemnity we celebrated on January 1st / today. She always did God's will even when she lost Her husband and Son to death. That's what in the Gospel we just heard, Jesus is highlighting her willingness to do God's will at all times irrespective of all situations. It is that sublime degree of trust in God, and obedience to Him, which we have to nurture in us. Let us seek the intercession of Mary, St. Joseph to whom Mary and Jesus was entrusted, and all the angels and saints, imitate them and keep God's will rather than our will, and do everything truly for the greater glory of God, especially we have just begun this new year..

(Spend some time in silence. Link this passage to the message that Jesus loves anyone who does the will of God the Father, as His family member. Mary is the perfect role model for doing that, and strive to achieve that privilege He has given us.)

5. February

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Jn 15:4-5

Remain in me, as I remain in you. Just as a branch cannot bear fruit on its own unless it remains on the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing.

The word of God.

R: Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ.

Let us reflect on the Gospel we just heard. How much He wants us to be with us, and expect only that in return. Let us allow Him to work in and through us, and yield much fruits. As in all relationships, a relationship with Jesus also needs quality time with Him. He is the source of our very life and our strength. In the pandemic, we have seen how people had to pay for treatment and ventilators, to sustain life. Every day we are getting this life as a gift from Him. Shortly we are entering the season of lent and many celebrate Valentine's day. How much we should think about His pure deep love for each one of us. How much we should be grateful to Him for all that He had already done for our salvation and on a daily basis.

(Spend some time in silence. Link this passage with the concept of Jesus' assurance to be with us. Also reminds that we can bear fruits if we remain with Him.)

6. March

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Jn 10:11-15

I am the good shepherd. A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. A hired man, who is not a shepherd and whose sheep are not his own, sees a wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away, and the wolf catches and scatters them. This is because he works for pay and has no concern for the sheep. I am the good shepherd, and I know mine and mine know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I will lay down my life for the sheep.

The word of God.

R: Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ.

Let us reflect on the Gospel we just heard. Jesus is really the good shepherd, as He is more concerned about our salvation, than we ourselves are. Like the sheep, we also wander away from Him. But He comes after us, though He won't compel us. He waits patiently for our conversion, and when we return to Him, He receives us with all His love. Just like the sheep closer to the shepherd is safer from the wolves, the closer we are to Him, the safer we are from the devil and his traps. We are in the Lent season and these days we are reflecting on His passion and death in a special way. The devil tempted even Jesus to turn away from the cross which He was about to carry. But it was His immense love for us that made Him carry the cross and endure all the sufferings to save us, who are not even grateful most of the times.

(Spend some time in silence. Think about the extreme love of Jesus by which He died for us, while we were sinners.)

Go to page 23

7. April

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Jn 15:12 - 17

This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I no longer call you slaves, because a slave does not know what his master is doing. I have called you friends, because I have told you everything I have heard from my Father. It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you. This I command you: love one another.

The word of God.

R: Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ.

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ, let us reflect on the Gospel we just heard. Jesus laid down His life on the cross, as a reparation for our sins, and He came down on earth for this sole purpose. How much we should be grateful for His love, and His mercy to consider us as His friends, though many times we take His love for granted. Let us take a firm decision that from now onwards we will spend at least 5minutes in gratitude for all that He has already done for us.

(Spend some time in silence. Think about the intense love by which He died for us, which no one else will do. Also think about His desire for friendship with us.. He called us friend...)

8. May

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mt 22:34-40.

When the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them a scholar of the law tested him by asking, “Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?” He said to him, “You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments.”

The word of God.

R: Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ.

Let us reflect on the Gospel we just heard. God nothing wants from us, other than our love for Him and others. As we celebrate mother’s day this month, it’s good to reflect on this a little deeper, which will enable us to understand the whole picture in a wider perspective. Our mothers also do not expect anything from us in return. Our little expressions of love, give them immense happiness. The only other thing she wants is peace and harmony in the family, among the family members and especially her children loving and caring each other. So let us consider our fellow beings as our brothers and sisters in Christ, and remain in peace with all. Let us help each other in which ever way possible and pray for all, and try our level best to make this world a heaven on earth.

(Spend some time in silence. Make a firm decision to make God our first priority, and to take all our decisions and to do everything based on that only.) Go to page 23

9. June

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Jn 14:18-21

I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me, because I live and you will live. On that day you will realize that I am in my Father and you are in me and I in you. Whoever has my commandments and observes them is the one who loves me. And whoever loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and reveal myself to him.”

The word of God.

R: Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ.

Let us reflect on the Gospel we just heard. Jesus has given us the assurance that He will not leave us as orphans. Do we need anything else? If we truly love God, we will realize that He has given us the commandments, not to burden us, but to guide us to eternal life. If we love God, how can we not love our fellow humans who are our brothers and sisters in Christ. Let us try to do everything in our capacity in accordance with these greatest of all commandments.

(Spend some time in silence. Think about His concern for us and how much He wants to be loved by us, how much He wants to make His “home” with in us.to dwell within us.)

¶ Amazing Grace, how sweet the sound,
That saved a wretch like me.
I once was lost but now am found,
Was blind, but now I see.
Through many dangers, toils and snares
I have already come;
'Tis Grace that brought me safe thus far and Grace will lead me home.¶

Think about His immense love for us, and make a firm decision to love Him above all, and completely give ourselves to Him. Like St. Therese of Lisieux, Lord we too pray, "O Jesus, who, in Thy cruel Passion didst become the 'reproach of men and the Man of Sorrows,' I worship Thy divine Face. Once it shone with the beauty and sweetness of the Divinity; but now, for my sake, it is become as 'the face of a leper.' Yet, in that disfigured Countenance, I recognize Thy infinite love, and I am consumed with the desire of making Thee loved by all mankind. "

¶ Heart of Jesus, Heart of Jesus, burning with love for me..
Inflame my heart, inflame my heart,
with love, with love for Thee.¶

Let us now think about the love and mercy of Jesus.

Silent Meditation/Reflection for 5mts.

¶ Jesus ! my Lord, my God, my all !
How can I love Thee as I ought ?
And, how revere this wondrous gift,
So far surpassing hope or thought ?
Sweet Sacrament! we Thee adore !
O, make us love Thee more and more! ¶

PRAYER OF PRAISE AND THANKSGIVING TO THE SACRED HEART

Lord, you deserve all honor and praise, because Your love is perfect and Your heart sublime. My heart is filled with gratitude for the many blessings and graces You give me and those whom I love. I cannot do anything to deserve this love, but may I always be attentive and never take for granted the gifts of mercy and love that flow freely and generously from Your Sacred Heart. Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us. Amen.

Let us praise and thank God for all the sufferings He endured in reparation for our sins to ensure salvation for us. Let us also thank Him for all that happened in the last month, good or bad, realizing that some were blessings and others were lessons, but all as per His Divine plan for a greater purpose.

Silent Reflection for another 5mts

Now let us present all our desires and petitions which we hold deep inside our heart and seek His blessings in all that we do, especially for the coming month.

Silent Reflection for 5mts.

Prayer of Reparation for insults and blasphemies

O Jesus, my Savior and Redeemer, Son of the living God, behold, we kneel before Thee and offer Thee our reparation; we would make amends for all the blasphemies uttered against Thy holy name, for all the injuries done to Thee in the Blessed Sacrament, for all the irreverence shown toward Thine immaculate Virgin Mother, for all the calumnies and slanders spoken against Thy spouse, the holy Catholic and Roman

Church. O Jesus, who hast said: "If you ask the Father anything in My name, He will give it to you", we pray and beseech Thee for all our brethren who are in danger of sin; shield them from every temptation to fall away from the true faith; save those who are even now standing on the brink of the abyss; to all of them give light and knowledge of the truth, courage and strength for the conflict with evil, perseverance in faith and active charity! For this do we pray, most merciful Jesus, in Thy name, unto God the Father, with whom Thou lives and reigns in the unity of the Holy Spirit world without end. Amen

¶ All that I am, all that I have
I lay them down before You, oh Lord
All my regrets, all my acclaims
The joy and the pain, I'm making them Yours
Lord, I offer my life to You
Everything I've been through, use it for Your glory
Lord I offer my days to You
Lifting my praise to You as a pleasing sacrifice
Lord I offer You my life
Things in the past, things yet unseen
Wishes and dreams that are yet to come true
All of my heart, all of my praise
My heart and my hands are lifted to You ¶

Offering To The Sacred Heart

O Lord Jesus Christ, while on earth You gave praise to the Father through Your most Sacred Heart. Today, You continue to give praise to Him in the Sacrament of the Eucharist everywhere, even to the end of the world. In union with Your divine offering, we offer to You during this whole day all our intentions and thoughts, all our affections and desires, all our words and actions, and we pledge not to withhold even the smallest part from You, O Lord.

¶ Come, now is the time to worship
Come, now is the time to give your heart
Come, just as you are to worship
Come, just as you are before your God, Come ¶

An Act Of Adoration

O great God, the Sovereign Lord of Heaven and Earth we prostrate ourselves before You. With all the angels and saints, we adore Thee. We acknowledge You to be our Creator and Sovereign Lord, our first beginning and last end. We render to You the homage of our being and lives. We submit ourselves to Your holy will and we devote ourselves to Your divine service this day and forever. We wish and purpose to gain today all the indulgences which it is possible for us to gain.

Eucharistic Heart of Jesus, gracious companion of my exile, we adore Thee. Eucharistic Heart of Jesus, lonely Heart, humiliated Heart, abandoned Heart, forgotten Heart, despised Heart, outraged Heart, Heart ignored by men, Heart which loves our own hearts; Heart pleading for our love, Heart so patient in waiting for us, Heart so eager to listen to our prayers, Heart so anxious for my requests, Heart, unending source of new graces, Heart so silent, yet desiring to speak to souls, Heart, welcome refuge of the hidden life, Heart, teacher of the secrets of union with God, Heart of Him Who sleeps but watches always, Eucharistic Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us. Jesus Victim, we desire to comfort Thee; we unite ourselves to Thee; we offer ourselves in union with Thee. We regard ourselves as nothing in Thy Presence. Grant that we may satisfy Thy thirst for our salvation, Thy burning thirst for our holiness, and that we may give Thee a sincere and pure love. We give Thee all our actions, our minds to be enlightened, our hearts to be directed, our will to be stabilized, our wretchedness to be relieved, our soul and body to be nourished by Thee. Eucharistic Heart of Our Savior, Whose Blood is the life of our souls, may we love You deeply. Amen.

Act of Consecration to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, to Thee I consecrate and offer up my person and my life, my actions, trials, and sufferings, that my entire being may henceforth only be employed in loving, honoring and glorifying Thee. This is my irrevocable will, to belong entirely to Thee, and to do all for Thy love, renouncing with my whole heart all that can displease Thee. I take Thee, O Sacred Heart, for the sole object of my love, the protection of my life, the pledge of my salvation, the remedy of my frailty and inconstancy, the reparation for all the defects of my life, and my secure refuge at the hour of my death. Be Thou, O Most Merciful Heart, my justification before God Thy Father, and screen me from His anger which I have so justly merited. I fear all from my own weakness and malice, but placing my entire confidence in Thee, O Heart of Love, I hope all from Thine infinite Goodness. Annihilate in me all that can displease or resist Thee. Imprint Thy pure love so deeply in my heart that I may never forget Thee or be separated from Thee. I beseech Thee, through Thine infinite Goodness, grant that my name be engraved upon Thy Heart, for in this I place all my happiness and all my glory, to live and to die as one of Thy devoted servants. Amen.

FIRST SATURDAY ROSARY TO BLESSED MOTHER

Though all on First Saturdays we have Rosary at 8.25am, in our Parish we will be having two cycles of 5consecutive First Saturday Reflection Rosary. First set from May to September, as a preparation of the Nativity of Our Blessed Mother, and the second set from November to March, in preparation for the Annunciation Feast on March 25.

Sign of the Cross: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Introductory Prayer.

Dear Mary, help us to pray the rosary, so that we overcome, with serenity the trials and tribulations which Satan inflict on us. Hail Mary these roses from our hearts are for you, because we love you so much. Roses of love and gratitude to make a garland for Jesus and you. Mary our Mother, receive this garland of rosary and help us to overcome evil by loving you and your Son Jesus more. Amen.

Queen of the Holy Rosary, you came to Fatima to reveal to the three shepherd children the treasures of grace hidden in the Rosary. Inspire our heart with a sincere love of this devotion, in order that by meditating on the Mysteries of our Redemption which are recalled in it, we may obtain peace for the world, the conversion of sinners, and our intentions and desires. We ask it for the greater glory of God, for your own honor, and for the good of souls, especially for our own. Amen.

We unite with all the Angels and Saints in Heaven, with all the just on earth, and with all the faithful now praying. We unite with Thee, O my Jesus, in order to praise worthily Thy holy Mother, and to praise Thee in her and through her. We renounce all the distractions that we may have during this Rosary, which we wish to say with modesty, attention and devotion, just as if it were to be the last of our lives. We offer Thee, O most Holy Trinity, this Creed in honor of all the mysteries of our Faith; this Our Father and these three Hail Marys in honor of the unity of Thy Essence and the Trinity of Thy Persons. We ask of Thee a lively faith, a firm hope and an ardent charity. Amen

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; He descended into hell; on the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

For the intentions of Holy Father, Pope:

1 Our Father.

We salute you, Mary, Daughter of God the Father, Mother of God the Son, and Bride of God the Holy Spirit, and pray for the gifts of faith, hope and charity

3 * Hail Mary

1* Glory be.,1 * Fathima prayer

The Our Father

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name;
Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our
trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
Amen

The Hail Mary

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee; blessed are thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.

Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

The Glory Be (The Doxology)

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Fathima Prayer:

"O my Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of hell, and lead all souls to Heaven, especially those who are in most need of Your Mercy".

Meditation of JOYFUL MYSTERIES

First Joyful Mystery

The Annunciation of Our Lord's Birth to Mary.

[1st of the 5months (May/November First Saturday)

Scripture passage from Gospel according to St. Luke 1:26-38

Announcement of the Birth of Jesus.

In the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a town of Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin betrothed to a man named Joseph, of the house of David, and the virgin's name was Mary. And coming to her, he said, "Hail, favored one! The Lord is with you." But she was greatly troubled at what was said and pondered what sort of greeting this might be. Then the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. Behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall name him Jesus. He will be great and will be called Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give him the throne of David his father, and he will rule over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end." But Mary said to the angel, "How can this be, since I have no relations with a man?" And the angel said to her in reply, "The holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore the child to be born will be called holy, the Son of God. And behold, Elizabeth, your relative, has also conceived a son in her old age, and this is the sixth month for her who was called barren; for nothing will be impossible for God." Mary said, "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word." Then the angel departed from her.

The word of God. R: Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ.

Reflection

Let us think of the annunciation event for a few minutes. Mary as a young girl might have been praying or doing some normal household chores, when the angel announced the message of Incarnation to her. God always respects our free will. God became willing to be born as a child in Mary's womb, just to save the fallen human race. The first man was from Earth, and the second man is from Heaven. Mary said "yes" without knowing the whole picture. She trusted God completely. Her obedience to God's will cancelled Eve's disobedience and she became co-redemptrix.

Now let us think of the situations in our lives where we had to take decisions. Thank God for the times we could also say "yes" trusting in His Divine will fully. Ask pardon for the times we gave priority to our conveniences and comforts and made wrong decisions/choices, said "no" to God, and failed in our duties and obligations. Try to identify God's messengers in our lives. It could be your parish priest, confessor, your parents, grandparents, spouses, children, grandchildren, friends and even a total stranger or enemy, all who help us to make right decisions and lead us closer to God. Think of all the incidents/situations which revealed God's will to us, and made us close to God. Those are the angelic annunciation moments in our lives. Make a firm decision to try our level best to understand God's will and do it from now onwards.

Second Joyful Mystery

The Visitation of Blessed Virgin Mary to Elizabeth.

[2nd of the 5months (June/December First Saturday)

Scripture passage from Gospel according to
St. Luke 1:39-56

Mary Visits Elizabeth.

During those days Mary set out and traveled to the hill country in haste to a town of Judah, where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the infant leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth, filled with the holy Spirit, cried out in a loud voice and said, "Most blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. And how does this happen to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For at the moment the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the infant in my womb leaped for joy. Blessed are you who believed that what was spoken to you by the Lord would be fulfilled."

The word of God. R: Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ.

Reflection.

From this single passage, we can consider Mary as the role model of Christian faith in action. We can say that Mary is the first evangelizer, as she carried Christ to Elizabeth, Zechariah and their unborn son John. She spread the message of God's salvation to others and spread the joy she experienced herself. She always helped others rising to the situation and without waiting for a request from them.

First and foremost, as Catholics our primary duty is to spread the Gospel and make Jesus known to others, not necessarily through our words but through our actions. Once we experience the deep inner joy as a Catholic, we are no longer able to hold it within ourselves. We will naturally become joy bearers. We will do whatever good we can do, for others, expecting nothing in return, just for the greater glory of God. Thank God for all the times we could be Christ bearers in some way, may be by becoming a good Catholic by our commitment to God which is obviously reflected in our actions and attitude towards others.

Third Joyful Mystery
The Nativity of Our Lord.

[3rd of the 5months (July/January First Saturday)

Scripture passage from Gospel according to
St. Luke 1:1-7

The Birth of Jesus

In those days a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that the whole world should be enrolled. This was the first enrollment, when Quirinius was governor of Syria. So all went to be enrolled, each to his own town. And Joseph too went up from Galilee from the town of Nazareth to Judea, to the city of David that is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family of David, to be enrolled with Mary, his betrothed, who was with child. While they were there, the time came for her to have her child, and she gave birth to her firstborn Son. She wrapped him in swaddling clothes and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

The word of God. R: Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ.

Reflection

The Gospel passage we just heard, draws our attention to the poverty our Lord chose willingly, for redeeming us. He showed us how to live a good life even in the worst scenarios on earth. Here we can see that the parents of Jesus, as law abiding citizens went all the way to Bethlehem despite Mary's pregnancy and the cold winter.

It reminds us that we should also follow common laws to do our part to ensure the welfare of the society to which we belong. Some people are reluctant to obey laws, rules and regulations, and think that it restricts their freedom. True freedom is not doing whatever we want, but doing the right thing not just for personal benefits alone, but for the common welfare. We should learn from the hardships Mary and Joseph undertook to follow the law. Jesus was wrapped in swaddling clothes and laid Him in a manger, and in fact this was the sign given by the angels to the shepherd. Even the baby in worst poverty might have got at least the comfort of a house, but in order to identify with the poorest of the poor, He chose to be born in a manger. So let us make a firm decision to ignore the difficulties we face in our life. Also let us see Jesus in all who are in real need and help them in which ever way possible.

Silent meditation for a moment.]

1 x Our Father, 10 x Hail Marys, 1 x Glory Be and 1 x Fatima Prayer.

Fourth Joyful Mystery

The Presentation of Our Lord in the temple.

[4th of the 5 months (August/February First Saturday)

Scripture passage from Gospel according to
St. Luke 2:22-40

The Presentation in the temple.

When the days were completed for their purification according to the law of Moses, Mary and Joseph took Jesus up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord, just as it is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that opens the womb shall be consecrated to the Lord, and to offer the sacrifice of a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons, in accordance with the dictate in the law of the Lord. Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon. This man was righteous and devout, awaiting the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he should not see death before he had seen the Christ of the Lord. He came in the Spirit into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus to perform the custom of the law in regard to him, he took him into his arms and blessed God, saying: “Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word, for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in the sight of all the peoples: a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel.” The child’s father and mother were amazed at what was said about him; and Simeon blessed them and said to Mary his mother, “Behold, this child is destined for the fall and rise of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be contradicted (and you yourself a sword will pierce) so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.” There was also a prophetess, Anna, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was advanced in years, having lived seven years with her husband after her marriage, and then as a widow until she was eighty-four. She never left the temple, but worshiped night and day with fasting and prayer. And coming forward at that very time, she gave thanks to God and spoke about the child to all who were awaiting the redemption of Jerusalem. When they had fulfilled all the prescriptions of the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him.

The word of God. R: Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ.

Reflection

In this Gospel passage, we can see that Mary and Joseph strictly observed the law of Moses and the religious practices, even in their poverty. Let us also obey God's commandments, offer whatever talents we have for the good of the church and those in real need. Above all, let us trust in His merciful love, surrender ourselves fully into God's hands, allowing Him to use us for His greater glory. Like Simeon and Anna, let us live this life on earth in prayer and praise, so that one day we will enjoy His presence in heaven with all the angels and saints.

Fifth Joyful Mystery – Jesus lost and found in the temple.

[5th of the 5months (September/March First Saturday)

Scripture passage from Gospel according to St. Luke 2:41-51

The Boy Jesus in the Temple.

Each year his parents went to Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, and when he was twelve years old, they went up according to festival custom. After they had completed its days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem, but his parents did not know it. Thinking that he was in the caravan, they journeyed for a day and looked for him among their relatives and acquaintances, but not finding him, they returned to Jerusalem to look for him. After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions, and all who heard him were astounded at his understanding and his answers. When his parents saw him, they were astonished, and his mother said to him, “Son, why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been looking for you with great anxiety.” And he said to them, “Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father’s house?” But they did not understand what he said to them. He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart.

The word of God. R: Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ.

Reflection

The Gospel scene is that of Mary and Joseph losing Jesus for three days. We can imagine the tremendous pain they had to undergo, as parents. Mary's spontaneous response as a mother is quite understandable and it shows her deep love and concern as a good mother. See how she reacted like an ordinary mother of all ages, and that's the beauty of this passage. Some people think that, as Mary is the Mother of God, she is free of emotions like this. Though God chose her in a special way, she is a normal human being like all of us. It is her love of God, complete trust in God and willingness to perfectly obey God's will, that makes her extra ordinary, and in fact the perfect disciple of Jesus, as Jesus has said in Mt.12:50 "For whoever does the will of my heavenly Father is my brother, and sister, and mother." One more quality we have to imbibe from her is that, we see that she kept all these things in her heart. Amidst our busy life, we have to reflect on all that happen in our lives, and try to find out what exactly is God communicating with us. On finding Divine will, we have to fulfill it for His greater glory. May Mary help us to do this in a special way. May Mary and Joseph, help us not to lose Jesus at any stage of our lives at any cost.

Concluding Prayer.

O God, Whose only-begotten Son, by His life, death and resurrection, has purchased for us the rewards of eternal life; grant, we beseech Thee, that, meditating upon these mysteries of the Most Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we may imitate what they contain and obtain what they promise, through the same Christ Our Lord. Amen. May the divine assistance remain always with us and may the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Hail Holy Queen

Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy, our life, our sweetness and our hope. to you do we cry, poor banished children of Eve, to you do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears, turn then, most gracious advocate, your eyes of mercy toward us, and after this exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary. Amen.

Pray for us, O holy Mother of God

That we may be worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray: Grant we beseech Thee, O Lord God, that we, Thy servants, may enjoy perpetual health of mind and body and, by the glorious intercession of the blessed Mary, ever Virgin, be delivered from present sorrow and enjoy eternal gladness, through Christ, Our Lord. Amen.

The Memorare.

Inspired with this confidence, we fly to thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to thee do we come; before thee we stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not our petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer us. Amen.

All : Act of Reparation for the First Saturdays of the Month

O Most Holy Virgin, and Our Mother, we listen with grief to the complaints of your Immaculate Heart surrounded with the thorns placed therein at every moment by the blasphemies and ingratitude of ungrateful humanity. We are moved by the ardent desire of loving you as Our Mother and of promising a true devotion to Your Immaculate Heart.

We therefore kneel before You to manifest the sorrow we feel for the grievances that people cause You, and to atone by our prayers and sacrifices for the offenses with which they return your love. Obtain for them and for us the pardon of so many sins. Hasten the conversion of sinners that they may love Jesus Christ and cease to offend the Lord, already so much offended. Turn your eyes of mercy toward us, that we may love God with all our heart on earth and enjoy Him forever in Heaven.

All: Act of Consecration to Mary

O my Queen, O my Mother, I love you and give myself to you. I give to you this day my eyes, my ears, my mouth, my heart, my whole self. Since I am yours, keep me and guard me as your child forever. Amen.

Prayer to Saint Joseph after the Rosary

To you, O blessed Joseph, do we come in our tribulation, and having implored the help of your most holy Spouse, we confidently invoke your patronage also. Through that charity which bound you to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God and through the paternal love with which you embraced the Child Jesus, we humbly beg you graciously to regard the inheritance which Jesus Christ has purchased by his Blood, and with your power and strength to aid us in our necessities. O most watchful guardian of the Holy Family, defend the chosen children of Jesus Christ; O most loving father, ward off from us every contagion of error and corrupting influence; O our most mighty protector, be kind to us and from heaven assist us in our struggle with the power of darkness. As once you rescued the Child Jesus from deadly peril, so now protect God's Holy Church from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity;

shield, too, each one of us by your constant protection, so that, supported by your example and your aid, we may be able to live piously, to die in holiness, and to obtain eternal happiness in heaven. Amen.

Priest: Final blessing prayer

O God, fill our hearts with Your love, and as You revealed to us by an angel, the coming of Your Son as man, so lead us through His suffering and death, to the glory of His resurrection who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen.

Always remember that Our Lady of Rosary is our Mother and friend, She meditates for us between God and the world, between Christ and the Church. May she stand with you at all the crossroads of your life and point the way to her Son.

And may the blessing of Almighty God, + the Father, Son and the Holy Spirit come down upon you and remain with you always. Amen.

¶ Immaculate Mary, your praises we sing,
you reignest in splendor with Jesus our King.
Ave, Ave, Ave Maria! Ave, Ave, Ave Maria!
In Heaven the blessed thy glory proclaim;
on earth we thy children invoke thy fair name.
Ave, Ave, Ave Maria! Ave, Ave, Ave Maria!
We pray for God's glory, may His kingdom come;
we pray for our Mother, the Church upon earth.
Ave, Ave, Ave Maria! Ave, Ave, Ave Maria! ¶

We ask of Thee a lively faith, a firm hope and an ardent charity. Amen

On the crucifix

O Lord, in order to honor St. Joseph as he deserves, Thou hast taken him body and soul to Heaven to Crown him with glory, thus signifying to the world, both visible and invisible, that Thou hast made Joseph Thy foster-father, the supreme steward of all Thy possessions. We beseech Thee, O Lord, that we may find aid in the merits of the Spouse of Thy Most Holy Mother, so that what we cannot obtain by ourselves may be given us through his intercession, who lives and reigns with God the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen.

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; He descended into hell; on the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

For the intentions of Holy Father, Pope Francis :

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our
trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Guardian of the Savior child,
Treading with the virgin mother,

Teach, oh, teach us how to die.

Safely to the distant land. ¶

RESPECT LIFE HOLY HOUR ON THE LAST DAY
(FRIDAY) OF THE ANNUAL NINE DAY NOVENA
FOR THE PROTECTION OF HUMAN LIFE, IN THE MONTH OF JANUARY

Sign of the Cross: In the name of the Father ,and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

My dear brothers and sisters, at 3 0'clock on this Friday ,let us thank God for His immense love and the great sacrifice He made for our salvation. Lord we praise and thank You for You paid a debt which You didn't owe, but the debt we owed, which we couldn't pay. Pause.

As we pray this Chaplet of Divine Mercy, let us keep in mind, the Message of DIVINE MERCY; given to St. Faustina by Jesus - That God Loves us all of us; no matter how great or how grave our sins are. Jesus wants us all to realize and to recognize that His Mercy is far greater than our sins. He wants us all to call upon Him with Trust ! To sincerely repent of our sins ,to receive His forgiveness and Mercy and then most importantly, to let His Mercy flow through us to others .

Today as we conclude 9 day prayers for Respect life, let us pray for that intention in a special way. From the time of creation, disregard for human life has continued to spread. When we, like Cain, allow sin to find a place in our hearts, we become blinded to the truth. Sometimes this blindness might be so deep that we fail to recognize the undeniable humanity of unborn children. We may even tragically believe the lie that abortion is an act of compassion. But we know that "life, especially human life, belongs only to God: for this reason whoever attacks human life, in some way attacks God Himself". Let us pray that all who support abortion will encounter the transforming love of the Father and, with repentant hearts, seek His mercy.

Opening Prayer

You expired, Jesus, but the source of life gushed forth for souls, and the ocean of mercy opened up for the whole world. O Fount of Life, unfathomable Divine Mercy, envelop the whole world and empty Yourself out upon us.

(Repeat 3 times) O Blood and Water, which gushed forth from the Heart of Jesus as a fountain of Mercy for us, I trust in You!

The Our Father

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen

The Hail Mary

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with you; blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

The Apostle's Creed

For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world. 10*

3. Eternal Father, I offer you the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your Dearly Beloved Son, Our Lord, Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world.

For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world.* 10

5. Eternal Father, I offer you the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your Dearly Beloved Son, Our Lord, Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world.

In a special way, we pray for Mothers placing their children for adoption, that in Your loving mercy, they may receive grace and support in embracing this loving option of the sacrificial love of Christ on the Cross in choosing to do what is best for their children, even at great cost to themselves.

For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world.* 10

Concluding prayer (Repeat 3 times)

Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world.

After more than four decades of legalized abortion, many children's lives have been ended, and many parents and family members suffer that loss—often in silence. Yet God's greatest desire is to forgive. No matter how far we have each strayed from His side, He says to us, "Don't be afraid. Draw close to my heart." Be assured that it is never too late to seek God's forgiveness in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Consider the parable of the Prodigal Son. After repenting of sinning against his father, he returns from far away to seek forgiveness and work as a servant. But the father sees him approaching, runs to warmly embrace him, and hosts a banquet to celebrate his return. So, too, does God welcome all of His repentant children, no matter how serious the sin. Let us pray that they turn confidently to Our Lord, Who is love and mercy, and instead of living the rest of their lives in guilt and tears, educate others to disregard abortion .

Closing Prayer

Eternal God, in whom mercy is endless and the treasury of compassion inexhaustible, look kindly upon us and increase Your mercy in us, that in difficult moments we might not despair nor become despondent, but with great confidence submit ourselves to Your holy will, which is Love and Mercy itself.

Introduction before Rosary.

As we pray this rosary, let us seek our Mother Mary's special help and support for all mothers, especially expectant mothers to follow her example. When the angel Gabriel appeared to Mary, she opened her heart to receive his message that she would conceive the Son of God in her womb. As a young, betrothed, but unmarried, woman, Mary knew that her pregnancy presented many challenges. Despite this knowledge, she faithfully responded, "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word" (Luke 1:38). Like the Blessed Mother, women who unexpectedly become pregnant often face significant challenges. They, too, are called to place their trust in God and faithfully respond to His gift of new life. And we are called to walk with them in their time of need. As Jesus taught us, when we love and serve others, we are loving and serving Him. May all expectant mothers be encouraged by Mary's example and receive support and grace in lovingly welcoming their children into the world. Pause for a minute.

Sign of the Cross: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Introductory Prayer.

Dear Mary, help us to pray the rosary, so that we overcome, with serenity the trials and tribulations which Satan inflict on us. Hail Mary these roses from our hearts are for you, because we love you so much. Roses of love and gratitude to make a garland for Jesus and you. Mary our Mother, receive this garland of rosary and help us to overcome evil by loving you and your Son Jesus more. Amen.

Queen of the Holy Rosary, you came to Fatima to reveal to the three shepherd children the treasures of grace hidden in the Rosary. Inspire our heart with a sincere love of this devotion, in order that by meditating on the Mysteries of our Redemption which are recalled in it, we may obtain peace for the world, the conversion of sinners, and our intentions and desires. We ask it for the greater glory of God, for your own honor, and for the good of souls, especially for our own. Amen.

We unite with all the Angels and Saints in Heaven, with all the just on earth, and with all the faithful now praying. We unite with Thee, O my Jesus, in order to praise worthily Thy holy Mother, and to praise Thee in her and through her. We renounce all the distractions that we may have during this Rosary, which we wish to say with modesty, attention and devotion, just as if it were to be the last of our lives. We offer Thee, O most Holy Trinity, this Creed in honor of all the mysteries of our Faith; this Our Father and these three Hail Marys in honor of the unity of Thy Essence and the Trinity of Thy Persons. We ask of Thee a lively faith, a firm hope and an ardent charity. Amen

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; He descended into hell; on the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

For the intentions of Holy Father, Pope:

Now as we seek the intercession of St. Joseph ,we pray that all fathers and fathers to be, make him as their role model.

Fatherhood has its origins in God, who chose to reveal Himself to us as Our Father, sending his only Son for the sake of our salvation. Fathers therefore have a special role “in revealing and in reliving on earth the very fatherhood of God” (Familiaris consortio 25). Fathers are called to exhibit “generous responsibility for the life conceived under the heart of the mother” (FC 25). They are uniquely entrusted with the protection and defense of both mother and child and, in this way, in safeguarding the sanctity of human life. As evidenced in our world today, the role of the father “is of unique and irreplaceable importance” (FC 25). Often women choose abortion because they do not have the support of the child’s father, or—even worse—the father of the child pressures her to make the decision to abort. At the same time, it is important to acknowledge with compassion that men can also be overwhelmed by an unexpected pregnancy and that society increasingly tells them that they should have no say in their children’s lives. In the face of these false messages, we pray that expectant fathers will find courage in the example of Saint Joseph, who embraced the role of father amid difficult circumstances and offer loving, life-affirming support to the mothers of their children. Sometimes, the expectant mother may want an abortion for a better career option, or just to enjoy life more in full freedom ,or even at the worry of their bodies losing the beauty. May such women be able to understand that motherhood is a gift from God, and in case of unexpected pregnancy it should be given priority over career and beauty. May their husbands be able to support and take care of them in those difficult situations.

Prayer to Saint Joseph after the Rosary

To you, O blessed Joseph, do we come in our tribulation, and having implored the help of your most holy Spouse, we confidently invoke your patronage also. Through that charity which bound you to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God and through the paternal love with which you embraced the Child Jesus, we humbly beg you graciously to regard the inheritance which Jesus Christ has purchased by his Blood, and with your power and strength to aid us in our necessities. O most watchful guardian of the Holy Family, defend the chosen children of Jesus Christ; O most loving father, ward off from us every contagion of error and corrupting influence; O our most mighty protector, be kind to us and from heaven assist us in our struggle with the power of darkness. As once you rescued the Child Jesus from deadly peril, so now protect God's Holy Church from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity; shield, too, each one of us by your constant protection, so that, supported by your example and your aid, we may be able to live piously, to die in holiness, and to obtain eternal happiness in heaven. Amen.

Let us also pray for all those who are in need of financial and moral support to those who go through unexpected pregnancy ,and do all that we can from our part to stop this cruel practice. Silence

Concluding prayer

As we conclude this hour, let us keep in our mind that at every stage and in every circumstance, we are held in existence by God's love. The presence of an illness, disability, or other challenging situation never diminishes the value of a human life. God does not call us to perfection of appearance or abilities, but to perfection in love. Christ invites us to embrace our own lives and the lives of others as true gifts. Abortion tragically rejects the truth that every life is a good and perfect gift, deserving protection. This violent practice ends the life of a human being at its very beginning and horribly wounds all those involved. But Christ came that we “might have life and have it more abundantly” (John 10:10), taking on human flesh for the sake of our redemption. May our culture experience the power of God’s transforming love, that all eyes may be opened to the incredible beauty of every human life. Through our own prayer, witness, and civic participation, we can encourage our leaders to truly answer their call to protect the rights of all people. For “there can be no true democracy without a recognition of every person’s dignity and without respect for his or her rights”

Eucharistic Blessing

Rosary to St. Joseph on the Wednesdays of March

Sign of the Cross: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Introductory Prayer

We unite with all the Angels and Saints in Heaven, with all the just on earth, and with all the faithful now praying. We unite with Thee, O my Jesus, in order to praise worthily Thy holy foster father St. Joseph, and to praise Thee in him and through him. We renounce all the distractions that we may have during this Josephian Rosary, which we wish to say with modesty, attention and devotion, just as if it were to be the last of our lives. We offer Thee, O most Holy Trinity, this Creed in honor of all the mysteries of our Faith; this Our Father and these three Hail Josephs in honor of the unity of Thy Essence and the Trinity of Thy Persons. We ask of Thee a lively faith, a firm hope and an ardent charity. Amen

On the crucifix

O Lord, in order to honor St. Joseph as he deserves, Thou hast taken him body and soul to Heaven to Crown him with glory, thus signifying to the world, both visible and invisible, that Thou hast made Joseph Thy foster-father, the supreme steward of all Thy possessions. We beseech Thee, O Lord, that we may find aid in the merits of the Spouse of Thy Most Holy Mother, so that what we cannot obtain by ourselves may be given us through his intercession, who lives and reigns with God the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen.

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; He descended into hell; on the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

For the intentions of Holy Father, Pope Francis :

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Amen

We salute you, St. Joseph, chosen by God the Father, as the guardian of Mary, Mother of God and Jesus her Son, and our Lord, and pray for the gifts of faith, hope and charity

*3 * Hail Joseph, Son of David, thou whose holiness surpasses that of all Angels and Saints, blessed art thou amongst men, thou who wert chosen to be the Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary of whom was born Jesus. Glorious Saint Joseph, now reigning body and soul in Heaven, protector of the Universal Church, pray for us poor sinners now and at the hour of our death. Amen.*

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

O my Jesus forgive our sins, save us from the fires of hell, lead all souls to heaven, especially those who are in most need of Thy mercy.

First Mystery : Betrothal to Mary, Annunciation to Joseph and the Birth and Naming of Jesus.

(1st Wednesday of March) Scripture passage from Gospel according to Mt.1:18-25.

Now this is how the birth of Jesus Christ came about. When his mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph, but before they lived together, she was found with child through the holy Spirit. Joseph her husband, since he was a righteous man, yet unwilling to expose her to shame, decided to divorce her quietly. Such was his intention when, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, “Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary your wife into your home. For it is through the holy Spirit that this child has been conceived in her. She will bear a son and you are to name him Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins.” All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had said through the prophet: “Behold, the virgin shall be with child and bear a son, and they shall name him Emmanuel,” which means “God is with us.” When Joseph awoke, he did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him and took his wife into his home. He had no relations with her until she bore a son, and he named him Jesus.

Second Mystery : Flight in to Egypt.

(2nd Wednesday of March) Scripture passage from Gospel according to Mt.2:13 -15

When they had departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, “Rise, take the child and his mother, flee to Egypt, and stay there until I tell you. Herod is going to search for the child to destroy him.” Joseph rose and took the child and his mother by night and departed for Egypt. He stayed there until the death of Herod, that what the Lord had said through the prophet might be fulfilled, “Out of Egypt I called my son.”

(4th Wednesday of March) Scripture passage from Gospel according to Lk.2:43-48

After they had completed its days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem, but his parents did not know it. Thinking that he was in the caravan, they journeyed for a day and looked for him among their relatives and acquaintances, but not finding him, they returned to Jerusalem to look for him. After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions, and all who heard him were astounded at his understanding and his answers. When his parents saw him, they were astonished, and his mother said to him, “Son, why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been looking for you with great anxiety.”

Final Hymn to St. Joseph

¶ Dear St. Joseph, pure and gentle,
Guardian of the Savior child,
Treading with the virgin mother,
Egypt's deserts, rough and wild.

Hail, St. Joseph, spouse of Mary,
Blessed above all saints on high,
When the death-shades round us gather,
Teach, oh, teach us how to die.

Dear St. Joseph, kind and loving,
Stretch to us a helping hand;
Guide us through life's toils and sorrows
Safely to the distant land. ¶

STATIONS OF THE CROSS MEDITATION

¶ Above all powers, above all kings
Above all nature and all created things
Above all wisdom and all the ways of man
You were here before the world began
Above all kingdoms, above all thrones
Above all wonders the world has ever known
Above all wealth and treasures of the earth
There's no way to measure what You're worth
Crucified, laid behind a stone
You lived to die, rejected and alone
Like a rose, trampled on the ground
You took the fall and thought of me Above all ¶

Introduction

The mystery of the Passion of Christ is the heart of Christian Spirituality, and all the four Gospels revolves around the passion, death and resurrection of Jesus. Going beyond all barriers, all of us suffer. Meditating on the sufferings of Jesus and His ultimate victory over death, gives us hope and strength to endure our sufferings. It reminds us that the end is not here, and we wait for the ultimate joy of heaven, which our Lord has secured for us by His death and resurrection.

Opening Prayer

Lord Jesus Christ, Thou has made this journey to die for us with love unutterable, and we have so many times unworthily abandoned Thee; but now we love Thee with our whole hearts, and because we love Thee, we repent sincerely for having ever offended Thee. Pardon us, O God. We adore Your cross O Lord and glorify Your Holy Resurrection, for behold because of the wood of tree, joy has come to the whole world.

Act of contrition - O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee, and I detest all my sins because of thy just punishments, but most of all because they offend Thee, my God, who art all good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve with the help of Thy grace to sin no more and to avoid the near occasion of sin. Amen.

After each station prayer,

Have mercy on us Lord. May the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be world without end Amen.

Reflections

Whenever we condemn others unjustly, or walk away from truth, we are still condemning Jesus. So let us ask pardon for all the times we misunderstood and misjudged others. Let us try to appreciate others, and use kind words like Thank you, Sorry, Please, more often. Let us courageously stand for truth, no matter what. When we are condemned unjustly for no fault of ours, let us bear it patiently for the sake of His passion and offer it as a reparation for our sins.

Station 2

Every time we are reluctant to help others in need, or complaint about our problems, traffic, weather, a coworker, a family member or friend, we are still making Jesus carry our crosses, which we are supposed to carry willingly and patiently. Let us try to think of our blessings more often with a heart full of gratitude knowing that our burdens are nothing compared to the cross He carried, and the sufferings He endured for our sake.

Station 3

The times we give into our weakness or show the worst side of ourselves to our loved ones especially when we are in bad mood, we put our selfishness first and hurt God and our fellow beings. By our falls we make Jesus fall again. Let us try to control our bad temper and develop patience. Always think before saying, as words once spoken can not be taken back, and they are indeed sharp enough to stab like a sword.

Station 4

Whenever we take for granted, those who help us, especially the efforts of our mothers, fathers, spouse or siblings or friends, we are still causing them this extreme pain which Our Blessed Mother and Jesus went through by this meeting. Let us try to see the love behind the good works others do for us, pray for them and make them happy in which ever way possible for us.

Station 5

In our sufferings, Jesus might have send someone to help us. It might have been a family member, a friend or even a stranger. Let us thank God for helping us in our times of need, and when ever we see someone in real need, be a Simon in their lives, even if that means to go out of our comfort zones.

Station 6

All the times we ignored the genuine needs of our family and friends, by watching television or thinking only about our work, we are like the bystanders in the way of His Cross. Whenever we spend quality time with our family and friends, or send an appreciation note to someone, or spend time with a lonely homebound person, or just be there with someone who is sick or suffering, our name is Veronica.

Station 7

Whenever we repeatedly make a mistake, whenever we fail to keep a promise, or repeatedly use a bad word, or argue unjustly with someone, when the times we felt that “I can’t believe that, I did or said that again”, we are making Jesus fall again. Let us make conscious efforts to avoid our mistakes especially the ones we repeat more often.

Station 8

Whenever we ignore the pains and sufferings of those around us, or deny the help we can do, we too are silently playing the role of those who did nothing but just witnessed Our Lord carry the cross. Let us extend a helping hand, a consoling word, to those in pain.

Station 9

Whenever we become the reason of fall for others or justify our mistakes, we are making Jesus fall again mercilessly. As soon as we commit a mistake, let us humbly ask pardon from God, and the ones we hurt. Whenever we fall, let us remember that while it is ok to fall, it is not ok to not get up.

Station 10

All the times we mocked someone else or treated someone without dignity or embarrassed someone, or not welcomed a newcomer, we are still stripping Jesus. Let us not do any of these and also, stop if we see someone being bullied ,and make them feel comfortable, and treat everyone with respect. Let us strip ourselves of every bad inclinations and addictions.

Station 11

Each time we doubt His love, and put our faith at stake, especially during our sufferings, or commit a sin knowingly, may be with our lies or lame excuses or broken promises, by not being faithful, we are still nailing Jesus to the cross again.

Station 12

Whenever we ignore our prayer life, or feel lazy to go to Church, or ignore the sacrifices made by our loved ones, we are still ignoring the great Sacrifice Jesus did for us on the Cross. Let us intensify our prayer life and be grateful to God and open our hearts to see love and sacrifices of our loved ones, and try our level best to die to our sins.

Station 13

Whenever we abandon a family member or a friend, especially in times of need or distress, or someone who is going through the pain of loss of a loved one ,or when we forget our departed loved ones, we are still abandoning Jesus. Let us pray more often for the souls of our loved ones. Let us also not forget those souls who have no one to pray for, as they also are our brothers and sisters in Christ.

Station 14

Whenever we face failures or disappointments in our lives, help us to still trust in God, knowing that our final victory is not of this world. Death is not the end for Jesus has redeemed us by His death and resurrection, and has purchased for us heaven. So let us strive for heaven above all .

Station 15

Let us rise above our situations to help others and face our lives more courageously as our Lord indeed has conquered death and has risen. We are hope filled people, and will be reunited with our loved ones in paradise. So let us live our lives accordingly and let no distress or misfortune take that hope away.

Conclusion

Lord Jesus, we have journeyed with You in these stations of cross and in a special way reflected them in our every day lives. We know that You call us individually and collectively for a greater union with You and one another, in our own way of life. Bless us with the grace to follow You, on this path way of salvation. Help us in our resolve to live anew in You. Pour out the grace to live life as You have called up. Help us to love the gifts You have given us, especially our family and friends.

Let us pray for the intentions of Pope Francis for obtaining the indulgences associated with this Stations of Cross devotion.

1 Our father. 1 Hail Mary. 1 Glory Be.

+May the Lord bless you, protect you from all the evil and bring to everlasting life. Amen.

¶ Greater love and friendship has no man than this
That he die for others, give his life for all.
No more are you servants, I have called you friends,
All my Father told me, I made known to you.

[Refrain:] Without You I am nothing.
My weakness needs Your strength.
So speak, Lord, to Your servant.
I'm waiting for You Word!

Go and build my kingdom, pluck up and break down.
Speak what I command you, I shall be with you.
No, you did not choose me, I appointed you,
Go, bear fruit in plenty, fruit that should abide.

[Refrain:]

Have you seen my people, have you heard their cry?
Do you know their suffering? Can you let them die?
Break the unjust fetter, set the captive free.
Share break with the hungry, make the blind to see.

[Refrain:] ¶

HOLY THURSDAY PRAYERS

¶ Of the glorious body telling,
O my tongue, its mysteries sing,
And the blood, all price excelling,
Which the world's eternal King,
In a spotless womb once dwelling,
Shed for this world's ransoming.

Given for us, for us descending,
Of a virgin to proceed,
Man with man in converse blending,
Scattered he the gospel seed,
Till his sojourn drew to ending,
Which he closed in wondrous deed.

At the last great supper lying,
Circled by his chosen band,
Duly with the law complying,
First he finished its command,
Then, immortal food supplying,
Gave himself by his own hand.

Word-made-flesh, by word he maketh,
Bread his very flesh to be;
Man in wine Christ's blood partaketh:
And if senses fail to see,
Faith alone the true heart waketh
To behold the mystery.

Therefore we, before him bending,
This great sacrament revere:
Types and shadows have their ending,

For the newer rite is here;
Faith, our outward sense befriending,
Makes the inward vision clear.

Glory let us give and blessing,
To the Father and the Son,
Honour, might and praise addressing,
While eternal ages run;
Ever too his love confessing,
Who, from both, with both is one. Amen. ¶

OR

¶ Sing, my tongue, the Savior's glory,
Of his flesh the myst'ry sing;
Of the Blood, all price exceeding,
Shed by our immortal King,
Destined, for the world's redemption,
From a noble womb to spring.

Of a pure and spotless virgin,
Born for us on earth below,
He, as man, with us conversing,
Stayed, the seeds of truth to sow;
Then he closed in solemn order
Wondrously his life of woe.

On the night of that last supper,
Seated with his chosen band,
He, the Paschal victim eating,
First fulfills the Law's command;
Then as food, to the disciples,
Gives himself with his own hand.

Word made flesh, the bread of nature,
By his word to flesh he turns;
Wine into his blood he changes,

What though sense no change discerns?

Only be the heart in earnest,
Faith its lesson quickly learns.

Down in adoration falling,
This great sacrament we hail;
Over ancient forms of worship,
Newer rites of grace prevail;
Faith tells us that Christ is present,
When our human senses fail.

To the everlasting Father,
And the Son who made us free,
And the Spirit, God proceeding
From them Each eternally,
Be salvation, honour, blessing,
Might and endless majesty. ¶

[incense]

O God, we give you thanks for the privilege of gathering here in this night to wait with You. Lord, today, we have just journeyed with You in the Last Supper incidents. We thank You Lord for the institution of the Holy Eucharist to be with us. We ask forgiveness for all the times we ignored Your intense longing for us, and for forgetting that You are waiting for us to come back. Lord we know that we should reflect You in our lives and proclaim our faith through our very lives. From now onwards, we will try our level best to do that.

Pause for a while

Lord, you deserve all honor and praise, because your love is perfect and your heart sublime. My heart is filled with gratitude for the many blessings and graces you give me and those whom I love. I cannot do anything to deserve this love, but may I always be attentive and never take for granted the gifts of mercy and love that flow freely and generously from your Sacred Heart. Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us. Amen.

Let us praise and thank God for all the sufferings He endured in reparation for our sins to ensure salvation for us. Let us also thank Him for all that happened in the last month, good or bad, realizing that some were blessings and others were lessons, but all as per His Divine plan for a greater purpose.

¶ Thank You, Lord, for all you've done, things both great and small,
And for Jesus Christ Your Son, Thank You most of all.
You forgive us when we falter, You bring healing when we sin,
You redeem our life from bondage,
And renew us deep within. ¶

Prayer of Reparation for insults and blasphemies

O Jesus, my Savior and Redeemer, Son of the living God, behold, we kneel before Thee and offer Thee our reparation; we would make amends for all the blasphemies uttered against Thy holy name, for all the injuries done to Thee in the Blessed Sacrament, for all the irreverence shown toward Thine immaculate Virgin Mother, for all the calumnies and slanders spoken against Thy spouse, the holy Catholic and Roman Church. O Jesus, who hast said: "If you ask the Father anything in My name, He will give it to you", we pray and beseech Thee for all our brethren who are in danger of sin; shield them from every temptation to fall away from the true faith; save those who are even now standing on the brink of the abyss; to all of them give light and knowledge of the truth, courage and strength for the conflict with evil, perseverance in faith and active charity! For this do we pray, most merciful Jesus, in Thy name, unto God the Father, with whom Thou lives and reigns in the unity of the Holy Spirit world without end. Amen

¶ As the deer pants for the water so my soul longs after You
You alone are my heart's desire and I long to worship You
You alone are my strength, my shield, to You alone may my spirit yield
You alone are my heart's desire, and I long to worship You You're my friend and You are my brother,
even though You are a king
I love You more than any other, so much more than anything
I want You more than gold or silver, only You can satisfy
You alone are the real joy giver, and the apple of my eye. ¶

An Act of Adoration

O great God, the Sovereign Lord of Heaven and Earth we prostrate ourselves before You. With all the angels and saints, we adore Thee. We acknowledge You to be our Creator and Sovereign Lord, our first beginning and last end. We render to You the homage of our being and lives. We submit ourselves to Your holy will and we devote ourselves to Your divine service this day and forever. We wish and purpose to gain today all the indulgences which it is possible for us to gain.

Eucharistic Heart of Jesus, gracious companion of my exile, we adore Thee. Eucharistic Heart of Jesus, lonely Heart, humiliated Heart, abandoned Heart, forgotten Heart, despised Heart, outraged Heart, Heart ignored by men, Heart which loves our own hearts; Heart pleading for our love, Heart so patient in waiting for us, Heart so eager to listen to our prayers, Heart so anxious for my requests, Heart, unending source of new graces, Heart so silent, yet desiring to speak to souls, Heart, welcome refuge of the hidden life, Heart, teacher of the secrets of union with God, Heart of Him Who sleeps but watches always, Eucharistic Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us. Jesus Victim, we desire to comfort Thee; we unite ourselves to Thee; we offer ourselves in union with Thee. We regard ourselves as nothing in Thy Presence. Grant that we may satisfy Thy thirst for our salvation, Thy burning thirst for our holiness, and that we may give Thee a sincere and pure love. We give Thee all our actions, our minds to be enlightened, our hearts to be directed, our will to be stabilized, our wretchedness to be relieved, our soul and body to be nourished by Thee. Eucharistic Heart of Our Savior, Whose Blood is the life of our souls, may we love You deeply. Amen.

[If Holy Thursday falls on the First Thursday of the month. Tomorrow is first Friday of this month. But being Good Friday, we don't have the first Friday Holy Hour. So let us do the Act of Consecration to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, to Thee I consecrate and offer up my person and my life, my actions, trials, and sufferings, that my entire being may henceforth only be employed in loving, honoring and glorifying Thee. This is my irrevocable will, to belong entirely to Thee, and to do all for Thy love, renouncing with my whole heart all that can displease Thee. I take Thee, O Sacred Heart, for the sole object of my love, the protection of my life, the pledge of my salvation, the remedy of my frailty and inconstancy, the reparation for all the defects of my life, and my secure refuge at the hour of my death. Be Thou, O Most Merciful Heart, my justification before God Thy Father, and screen me from His anger which I have so justly merited. I fear all from my own weakness and malice, but placing my entire confidence in Thee, O Heart of Love, I hope all from Thine infinite Goodness. Annihilate in me all that can displease or resist Thee. Imprint Thy pure love so deeply in my heart that I may never forget Thee or be separated from Thee. I beseech Thee, through Thine infinite Goodness, grant that my name be engraved upon Thy Heart, for in this I place all my happiness and all my glory, to live and to die as one of Thy devoted servants. Amen.]

The Lord be with you ... R. And with your spirit

A reading from the Holy Gospel According to Mark 14:32- 42

The Agony in the Garden.

Then they came to a place named Gethsemane, and He said to His disciples, "Sit here while I pray." He took with Him Peter, James, and John, and began to be troubled and distressed. Then He said to them, "My soul is sorrowful even to death. Remain here and keep watch." He advanced a little and fell to the ground and prayed that if it were possible the hour might pass by Him; He said, "Abba, Father, all things are possible to You. Take this cup away from me, but not what I will but what You will." When He returned He found them asleep. He said to Peter, "Simon, are you asleep? Could you not keep watch for one hour? Watch and pray that you may not undergo the test. The spirit is willing but the flesh is weak."

Withdrawing again, He prayed, saying the same thing. Then He returned once more and found them asleep, for they could not keep their eyes open and did not know what to answer Him. He returned a third time and said to them, "Are you still sleeping and taking your rest? It is enough. The hour has come. Behold, the Son of Man is to be handed over to sinners. Get up, let us go. See, my betrayer is at hand.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

R: Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ.

In the reading we just heard, we see Jesus asking His disciples, “Could you not keep watch for one hour? Today in this Blessed Sacrament, You are waiting for us , and asking us that same question. Pause for a moment.

¶ [Refrain:] Stay with me, remain here with me.
Watch and pray, watch and pray.2

Stay here and keep watch with me.

Watch and pray, watch and pray! [Refrain:]

Watch and pray not to give way to temptation. [Refrain:]

The spirit is eager, but the flesh is weak. [Refrain:]

My heart is nearly broken with sorrow.

Remain here with me, stay awake and pray. [Refrain:]

Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass me by. [Refrain:]

Father, if this cannot pass me by without my drinking it, your will be done. [Refrain:] ¶

Jesus is right here, in the bread and the wine on the altar of repose. Jesus was truly and fully God and human at the same time. The devil might have tempted Him to make Him give up the cross. He was well aware of the sufferings that awaited Him. But much more than that, it would have been our ingratitude, sinfulness and above all the lack of sense of sin that caused Him great anguish, as the deep pain He experienced by the very fact that He could not save all the souls, might have been very much discouraging Him. Will anyone of us start or even think of starting something knowing that success is not 100% ,that too not because of our faults, but because of the betrayals and ignorance of our loved ones. How much the thought that we whom He loved to the extent of giving His very life , would fall for devil's empty promises and obey the enemy, would have increased His agony. How would we feel if our children listen to some drug dealers and fall in their trap for mere momentary pleasure, and disregard us. Quite often we focus only on His physical pain, and totally forget about the mental agony He endured. When we do something for which the result is sure, we will have the strength to overcome the struggles that come in the way. We will have great enthusiasm to start and see the end result. But Jesus knew that even after all that He did, people will totally ignore Him and will get indulged in those very sins from which He wanted to save us. At this moment what ever be the issues that is troubling us, set aside all that thoughts and worries, and try to concentrate on Him alone. We have the chance to stay awake, to not go to sleep, and reflect on the suffering of our Lord, both physical and mental, this very night. Lord, help us to use this time effectively, and spend at least an hour with You, not to ask anything from You, but to reflect on Your immense love and earnest desire to redeem us, which made You go through all the sufferings You endured for us. With a grateful heart, we remember once again, all you have done and all that you are. We realize our need for You in our lives, and of your great sufficiency. Make us whole by Your love and forgiveness. Lord help us to focus on Your presence in us, and listen to Your gentle whispers amidst the chaos of the world.

¶ [Refrain:] Sacred silence, holy ocean ,

Gentle water, washing over me
Help me listen, Holy Spirit,
Come and speak to me
God my father, Christ my brother,
Holy Spirit, sanctifying me
But Lord, have mercy and please forgive me,
Come and set me free
Sacred stillness, deep still waters,
Calm the raging storms within my soul
And clear the waters of confusion,
At pure and peaceful waters flow [Refrain:]

Holy Mary, Gentle mother,
God's pure vessel, praying for me
Saints and Angels, all in heaven ,
Come and be with me
Sacred silence, holy ocean,
Gentle water, washing over me
Help me listen, Holy Spirit ,
Come and speak to me. ¶

ROSARY FOR THE MONTH OF MAY

As May is the month traditionally dedicated to Our Blessed Mother, we will offer a Rosary daily to honor her.

Sign of the Cross:

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Introductory Prayer.

Dear Mary, help us to pray the rosary, so that we overcome, with serenity the trials and tribulations which Satan inflict on us. Hail Mary these roses from our hearts are for you, because we love you so much. Roses of love and gratitude to make a garland for Jesus and you. Mary our Mother, receive this garland of rosary and help us to overcome evil by loving you and your Son Jesus more. Amen.

Queen of the Holy Rosary, you came to Fatima to reveal to the three shepherd children the treasures of grace hidden in the Rosary. Inspire our heart with a sincere love of this devotion, in order that by meditating on the Mysteries of our Redemption which are recalled in it, we may obtain peace for the world, the conversion of sinners, and our intentions and desires. We ask it for the greater glory of God, for your own honor, and for the good of souls, especially for our own. Amen.

We unite with all the Angels and Saints in Heaven, with all the just on earth, and with all the faithful now praying. We unite with Thee, O my Jesus, in order to praise worthily Thy holy Mother, and to praise Thee in her and through her. We renounce all the distractions that we may have during this

Rosary, which we wish to say with modesty, attention and devotion, just as if it were to be the last of our lives. We offer Thee, O most Holy Trinity, this Creed in honor of all the mysteries of our Faith; this Our Father and these three Hail Marys in honor of the unity of Thy Essence and the Trinity of Thy Persons. We ask of Thee a lively faith, a firm hope and an ardent charity. Amen

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; He descended into hell; on the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

For the intentions of Holy Father, Pope:

1 Our Father.

We salute you, Mary, Daughter of God the Father, Mother of God the Son, and Bride of God the Holy Spirit, and pray for the gifts of faith, hope and charity

Amen.

Prayer of St. Faustina before the Eucharist

I adore You, Lord and Creator, hidden in the Most Blessed Sacrament. I adore You for all the works of Your hands, that reveal to me so much wisdom, goodness and mercy, O Lord. You have spread so much beauty over the earth and it tells me about Your beauty, even though these beautiful things are but a faint reflection of You, incomprehensible Beauty. And although You have hidden Yourself and concealed Your beauty, my eye, enlightened by faith, reaches You and my soul recognizes its Creator, its Highest Good, and my heart is completely immersed in prayer of adoration.

My Lord and Creator, Your goodness encourages me to converse with You. Your mercy abolishes the chasm which separates the Creator from the creature. To converse with You, O Lord, is the delight of my heart. In You I find everything that my heart could desire. Here You light illumines my mind, enabling it to know You more and more deeply. Here streams of graces flow down upon my heart. Here my soul draws eternal life. O my Lord and Creator, You alone, beyond all these gifts, give Your own self to me and unite Yourself intimately with Your miserable creature.

O Christ, let my greatest delight be to see You loved and Your praise and glory proclaimed, especially the honor of Your mercy. O Christ, let me glorify Your goodness and mercy to the last moment of my life, with every drop of my blood and every beat of my heart. Would that I be transformed into a hymn of adoration of You. When I find myself on my deathbed, may the last beat of my heart be a loving hymn glorifying Your unfathomable mercy. Amen.

CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION PRAYERS

Commentary before Procession (In Church)

MC: Through this procession we express a public profession and manifestation of our Faith. In a particular manner we profess our belief in Jesus Christ, who is present to us through the Blessed Sacrament. It is through us that His presence is extended to others. May this procession inspire us and bless our parish family with a supernatural unity and a divine care for all people. May our prayer touch the hearts of those who are on the periphery of belief as well as those who have wandered from His divine love.

Theme:Thanksgiving

Commentary: (Priest)

The Eucharist is an offering of Thanksgiving. In the Gospel, Christ established the Mass as the sacrifice of the New Law. This sacrifice is accomplished through the Paschal Lamb, Jesus Christ. It is Christ who offers His Body and Blood as our Paschal Lamb. By partaking of this Eucharist we are graced and united with God and one another in Love. We also become the body of Christ that we receive. Let us pray that this offering of salvation will be established throughout the world.

The Lord be with you R. And with your spirit.

A reading from the Gospel according to Matthew (Mt. 26, 17-19; 26-29) Glory to you Lord.

On the first day of the feast of Unleavened Bread, the disciples came up to Jesus and said: "Where do you wish us to prepare the Passover supper for you?" He said: "Go to this man in the city and tell him, 'The Teacher says, my appointed time draws near. I am to celebrate the Passover with my disciples in your house.'" The disciples then did as Jesus had ordered, and prepared the Passover supper. During the meal Jesus took bread, blessed it, broke it, and gave it to his disciples. "Take this and eat it", he said, "this is my body." Then He took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them. "All of you must drink from it," he said. "For this is my blood, the blood of the covenant, to be poured out on behalf of many for the forgiveness of sins. I tell you, I will not drink this fruit of the vine from now until the day when I drink it new with you in my Father's reign."

Theme: Spiritual Nourishment

Commentary-(Priest)

The Eucharist is our Spiritual nourishment. In the gospel narrative of the multiplication of the loaves, this miraculous care and feeding of the hungry multitude is a messianic sign. According to the prophets, it is the bread, which gives eternal life and so satiates the chosen people. In this multiplication of the loaves Jesus presents himself as the Good Shepherd, the promised Messiah, and the source of eternal life. We pray that this communal participation in the Bread of Life be the source of our union with God and with all people.

The Lord be with you R. And with your spirit.
A reading from the Gospel according to Mark
Glory to you Lord.

At about that time another large crowd assembled and they were without anything to eat. He called the disciples over to him and said: "My heart is moved with Pity for the crowd. By now they have been with me three days, and have nothing to eat. If I send them home hungry, they will collapse on the way. Still he asked them, "How many loaves do you have?" "Seven," they replied. Then he directed the crowd to take their places on the ground. Taking the seven loaves he gave thanks, broke them, and gave them to his disciples to distribute, and they handed them out to the crowd. They also had a few small fish; asking a blessing on the fish, he told them to distribute these also. The people in the crowd ate until they had their fill; then they gathered up seven wicker baskets of leftovers. Those who had eaten numbered about four thousand.

Theme: Immortality and Eternal Life

Commentary: (Priest)

The Eucharist is a pledge of immortality. We are all called to the "eternal banquet," which is prepared by our heavenly Father. However, we already have a foretaste of the pledge of that banquet here on earth. It is the Eucharistic Banquet, a promise of eternal life. Let us respond to the call of Christ, follow His voice that assures us of sharing the eternal banquet of the Lamb of God. Let us pray that with the Eucharist that we may live in constant view of our eternal life with the Holy Trinity.

The Lord be with you R. And with your spirit.

A Reading from the Gospel according to John (6:47-51, 54) Glory to you Lord.

Jesus said: "Very truly, I tell you he who believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. This is the bread which comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day.

Theme: Unity

Commentary in English

The Eucharist is the sacrament of unity with God and His people. God's people are frequently called His vineyard in the Old Testament. But this vineyard did not bear the fruit expected by the Divine Gardener. Therefore the new vineyard is the Church, the People of God. The Church is the true Israel that offers the supernatural fruits of worship and love. Through Baptism we are united to this branch to bring the promised fruit. This will occur the more fruitfully we partake of the Living Branch and through His Body we deepen His life within us, we deepen His love. Let us pray that we bear that expected fruit of the Eucharist, which is LOVE.

Commentary in Spanish

La Eucaristía es el Sacramento de unidad con Dios y con su pueblo. En el Antiguo Testamento, a menudo Dios llama a su pueblo: mi viña. Pero esta viña no produce el fruto esperado por el divino Vifador. Hoy, la nueva viña del señor es la Iglesia, el pueblo de Dios. La Iglesia es el verdadero Israel que ofrece los frutos sobrenaturales de la oración y del amor. Por el bautismo somos unidos a la verdadera Vid para dar el fruto prometido. Cuanto más participamos de la Vida de la verdadera vid, daremos el mayor y mayor fruto posible. Participaremos mayor e de Su Vida, de Su Amor. Oremos para que podamos dar los frutos esperados mediante la Eucaristía, que es Su Amor.

Gospel in English. (Priest)

The Lord be with you R. And with your spirit.

A Reading from the Gospel according to John

(Jn 15:5-11) Glory to you Lord.

I am the vine, you are the branches. He who lives in me and I in him will produce abundantly, for apart from me you can do nothing. A man who does not live in me is like a withered, rejected branch, picked up to be thrown in the fire and burnt. If you live in me, and my words stay part of you, you may ask what you will -it will be done for you. My Father has been glorified in your bearing much fruit and becoming my disciples. As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you. Live on in my love. You will live in my love if you keep my commandments, and live in his love. All this I tell you that my joy may be yours and your joy may be complete.

Prayer in English :(Priest)

Let us pray:

Lord, may this sacrament of new life warm our hearts with your love and make us eager for the eternal joy of your kingdom. Through Christ our Lord.

Gospel in Spanish — Jn 15:5-11

Yo soy vid y ustedes las ramas. Si alguien permanece en mi, y yo en el, produce mucho fruto, pero sin mi no pueden hacer nada. El que no permanece en mf, será arrojado afuera y se secará, como ramas muertas: hay que recogerlas y echarlas al fuego, donde arden. Si se quedan en mf, y mis palabras permanecen en ustedes, todo lo que deseen lo pedirán, y se les concederá. Mi padre encuentra su gloria en esto: que ustedes produzcan mucho fruto, llegando a ser con esto, mis auténticos discípulos. Yo los he amado a ustedes como el Padre me ama a mí. Permanezcan en mi amor. Si guardan mis mandatos, permanecerán en mi amor, así como yo permanezco en el amor del Padre, guardando sus mandatos. Yo les he dicho todas estas cosas para que en ustedes esté mi alegría y la alegría de ustedes sea perfecta.

On September 14, Exultation of The Cross Feast Day REFLECTION & PRAYERS ON

THE SEVEN
LAST WORDS OF
JESUS
ON THE CROSS

FIRST WORD

"FATHER, FORGIVE THEM,
FOR THEY KNOW NOT WHAT THEY DO."

-LUKE 23: 34

SECOND WORD

"AMEN I SAY TO THEE,
THIS DAY THOU SHALT BE
WITH ME IN PARADISE."

-LUKE 23: 43

THIRD WORD

"WOMAN, BEHOLD THY
SON. AFTER THAT, HE
SAID TO THE DISCIPLE:
BEHOLD THY MOTHER."

-JOHN 19: 26-27

FOURTH WORD

"ELI, ELI, LAMMA
SABACTHANI? THAT IS,
MY GOD, MY GOD, WHY
HAST THOU FORSAKEN
ME?" -MATT 27:46

FIFTH WORD

"I THIRST." -JOHN 19:28

SIXTH WORD

"IT IS CONSUMMATED."
-JOHN 19:30

SEVENTH WORD

"FATHER, INTO THY
HANDS I COMMEND MY SPIRIT." -LUKE 23:46

There was never a preacher like the dying Christ, and there was never a sermon like these seven words.

By contemplating on these last words of Jesus, especially in this Feast Day of the Exultation of the Cross, we can better appreciate His sacrifice on the cross for us. Reflect on these words, as though we were present at the time Christ spoke them.

First Word: “Father, forgive them, they know not what they do.” Luke. 23:34.

Reflection: The forgiveness of God through Christ doesn’t come to us, only when we don’t know what we are doing is a sin, but in the mercy of God, we receive His forgiveness even when we do what we know to be wrong . God chooses to wipe away our sins, not because we have some convenient excuse and not because we have tried hard to make up for them, but because He is a God of amazing grace, with abundant mercy. Having received the forgiveness from God let us forgive others wholeheartedly.

Prayer: As I read the words, “Father, forgive them,” may I understand that I too am forgiven completely through Christ. Help me to know with conviction that I am fully and finally forgiven, not because of anything I have done, but because of what you have done for me. May I live today as a forgiven person, and forgive all those who have hurt me knowingly and unknowingly, with the same forgiveness I have received from You, opening my heart to You, choosing not to sin, because the power of sin has been broken by Your salvation. Amen.

Second Word: “Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise.” Luke. 23:43.

Reflection: Heaven is real, and salvation is sure for those who truly repent from the heart. God forgives and generously opens the door to heaven for those who will to repent of their sins. The sinner recognized Christ for who He was. The mercy of God is always ready to reach out and save a soul, even at the last minute. Jesus, embodying the mercy of God, says to us also, “You will be with me in paradise.” We are welcomed there not because we are living rightly, but because God is merciful and because we have put our complete trust in Him.

Prayer: Dear Lord, Your mercy, exceeds anything I can even imagine. It encourages me and heals me. Jesus, I also pray, remember me when you come into your kingdom! Jesus, remember me today as I seek to live within your kingdom! Amen.

Third Word: When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple there whom he loved, he said to his mother, “Woman, behold, your son.” Then he said to the disciple, “Behold, your mother.” John.19:26-27.

Reflection: Jesus, when You gave Mary to St. John, You were giving her, the one who fed You and raised You, as our mother also. Jesus, by this action, we see the immense mental agony You experienced, and that You were fully human, as much as You were fully divine. Even as You were dying on the cross as the Savior of the world, You didn’t neglect Your duty as a son. Let us learn from Jesus to value relationships and take care of each other.

Prayer: Lord, I seek Your help and guidance to fulfil my duties and responsibilities. I offer my sincere gratitude for Your suffering. Thank you for bearing my sin on the cross. I give You my praise, my love, my heart. all that I am, because You have given me all that You are. All praise be to You, Lord Jesus, fully God and fully human, Savior of the world . . . my Savior! Amen.

Fourth Word: “Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?” which means, “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?” Mathew.27:46

Reflection: Even though Jesus experienced the fullness of human emotion, He also knew the Scriptures, and God the Father's plan for salvation. Thus Jesus chooses to pray, Psalm 22, a Psalm that begins with discouragement and ends with joyful hope and faith. In that excruciating moment, Jesus definitely experienced something far more horrible than physical pain, the mystery which we can never grasp. Like Jesus, we should also express our true feelings to God.

Prayer: Lord Jesus, I am overwhelmed with gratitude, for what you suffered for me. Thank You dear Lord for taking my place, so that I might never be forsaken by the Father. Amen.

Fifth Word: “I thirst.” John.19:28.

Reflection: Among the seven last words of Jesus on the cross, this is the only verbal expression of His physical suffering. John notes that Jesus said “I am thirsty,” not only as a statement of physical reality, but also in order to fulfil the Scripture. Jesus was suffering for the sins of the world. His thirst on the cross was more than a physical thirst; it was a thirst for souls for whom love compelled Him to redeem. Let us be thirsty for God, who loves us more than anyone else in the world.

Prayer: Lord, besides extraordinary pain, You also experienced extreme thirst. All of this was part and parcel of Your taking on our humanity so that You might take away our sin. Lord, I too am thirsty, not for physical drink, but for Your living water. Lord, quench the thirst of my soul. Amen.

Sixth Word: “It is finished.” John.19:30.

Reflection: The Greek verb translated as “It is finished” (tetelestai) does not mean “This is finally done!” but “It’s completely done .” On the cross, Jesus finished His work of salvation. Let us also not give up on what we ought to do.

Prayer: Lord, You accomplished that which no other person could do, taking the sin of the world upon your sinless shoulders taking my sin so that I might receive Your forgiveness and new life. Lord help me to live the life You have given me, in the way You want from me. Help me to accomplish Your plan for me. All praise be to You, gracious Lord , for finishing the work of salvation . All praise be to You, dear Jesus, for saving me! Amen.

Seventh Word: “Father, into your hands I commend my spirit” Luke 23:46

Reflection: The very last words Jesus spoke on the Cross before His final breath, was Ps 31:6. Jesus willingly gave up His soul to His Father in Heaven. He was perfectly obedient to His Father’s will. The Lamb of God has been slain for my sins also. Let us place our lives in God’s hands and hope for a union with Him after death.

Prayer: Jesus, just like You entrusted Your spirit into the hands of the Father, I give my life to You. I trust You, and accept You as my Savior. I submit to Your sovereignty over my life, and seek to live for Your glory alone. Here I am, Lord, available to You, both now and in the future. I reflect upon Your death, not in despair, but in hope. With cross behind me, resurrection is on the horizon. All praise be to You, dear Jesus, for saving me by Your death and resurrection! Amen.

(All sing together:)

Prayer: Mary our Mother, help us to keep our faith, till our last moment. Hail Mary...

5. The Crucifixion of Jesus.

Reflection: Mary, who had already lost her husband lost her Son also. Like Mary, let us also hold on to God even when we struggle with the death of a loved one, health issues, the loss of job, etc.

Prayer: Mary our Mother, help us to accept our limitations as human beings, and surrender ourselves to God, who loves us immensely. Hail Mary...

6. Jesus Taken Down from the Cross.

Prayer: Mary our Mother, obtain for me pardon for past sins and save me from future sins and falls. Hail Mary...

7. Jesus Laid in the Tomb.

Reflection: When the body of Jesus was placed inside the tomb, it seemed to be the end of the world for Mother Mary.

Like Mary, let us courageously face life, even when Circumstances drags us to give up in life.

Prayer: Mary our Mother, help us to live our lives with immense faith in God, no matter what the challenges that comes in the way. Hail Mary...

Let intercession be made for us, we beseech You, O Lord Jesus Christ, now and at the hour of our death, before the throne of Your mercy, by the Blessed Virgin Mary, Your Mother, whose most holy soul was pierced by a sword of sorrow in the hour of Your bitter Passion. Through You, O Jesus Christ, Savior of the world, Who with the Father and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns world without end. Amen.

ROSARY FOR THE MONTH OF OCTOBER

As October is the month of Rosary, we will offer our Rosary as a spiritual bouquet to Our Blessed Mother.

White flowers for Joyful mysteries, yellow for Luminous mysteries, Red for Sorrowful mysteries and Purple for Glorious mysteries.

Sign of the Cross: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Introductory Prayer.

Dear Mary, help us to pray the rosary, so that we overcome, with serenity the trials and tribulations which Satan inflict on us. Hail Mary these roses from our hearts are for you, because we love you so much. Roses of love and gratitude to make a garland for Jesus and you. Mary our Mother, receive this garland of rosary and help us to overcome evil by loving you and your Son Jesus more. Amen.

Queen of the Holy Rosary, you came to Fatima to reveal to the three shepherd children the treasures of grace hidden in the Rosary. Inspire our heart with a sincere love of this devotion, in order that by meditating on the Mysteries of our Redemption which are recalled in it, we may obtain peace for the world, the conversion of sinners, and our intentions and desires. We ask it for the greater glory of God, for your own honor, and for the good of souls, especially for our own. Amen.

We unite with all the Angels and Saints in Heaven, with all the just on earth, and with all the faithful now praying. We unite with Thee, O my Jesus, in order to praise worthily Thy holy Mother, and to praise Thee in her and through her. We renounce all the distractions that we may have during this

Rosary, which we wish to say with modesty, attention and devotion, just as if it were to be the last of our lives. We offer Thee, O most Holy Trinity, this Creed in honor of all the mysteries of our Faith; this Our Father and these three Hail Marys in honor of the unity of Thy Essence and the Trinity of Thy Persons. We ask of Thee a lively faith, a firm hope and an ardent charity. Amen

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; He descended into hell; on the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer to Saint Joseph after the Rosary

To you, O blessed Joseph, do we come in our tribulation, and having implored the help of your most holy Spouse, we confidently invoke your patronage also. Through that charity which bound you to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God and through the paternal love with which you embraced the Child Jesus, we humbly beg you graciously to regard the inheritance which Jesus Christ has purchased by his Blood, and with your power and strength to aid us in our necessities. O most watchful guardian of the Holy Family, defend the chosen children of Jesus Christ; O most loving father, ward off from us every contagion of error and corrupting influence; O our most mighty protector, be kind to us and from heaven assist us in our struggle with the power of darkness. As once you rescued the Child Jesus from deadly peril, so now protect God's Holy Church from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity; shield, too, each one of us by your constant protection, so that, supported by your example and your aid, we may be able to live piously, to die in holiness, and to obtain eternal happiness in heaven. Amen.

Priest: Final blessing prayer

O God, fill our hearts with Your love, and as You revealed to us by an angel, the coming of Your Son as man, so lead us through His suffering and death, to the glory of His resurrection who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen.

Always remember that Our Lady of Rosary is our Mother and friend, She meditates for us between God and the world, between Christ and the Church. May she stand with you at all the crossroads of your life and point the way to her Son.

And may the blessing of Almighty God, + the Father, Son and the Holy Spirit come down upon you and remain with you always. Amen.

¶ Immaculate Mary, your praises we sing,
you reignest in splendor with Jesus our King.
Ave, Ave, Ave Maria! Ave, Ave, Ave Maria!
In Heaven the blessed thy glory proclaim;
on earth we thy children invoke thy fair name.
Ave, Ave, Ave Maria! Ave, Ave, Ave Maria!
We pray for God's glory, may His kingdom come;
we pray for our Mother, the Church upon earth.
Ave, Ave, Ave Maria! Ave, Ave, Ave Maria! ¶

Hour of grace at 12pm on December 8 on the Immaculate Conception Feast Day

Let us begin this Holy Hour of grace

Sign of the Cross: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen. Let us thank God for the gift of Incarnation and pray The Angelus

V. The Angel of the Lord declared unto Mary.

R. And she conceived of the Holy Spirit. Hail Mary ...

V. Behold the handmaid of the Lord.

R. Be it done to me according to Thy word. Hail Mary . . .

V. And the Word was made flesh.

R. And dwelt among us.

Hail Mary . . .

V. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

*Let us pray: Pour forth, we beseech Thee, O Lord, Thy grace into our hearts; that we, to whom the incarnation of Christ, Thy Son, was made known by the message of an angel, may by His passion and cross be brought to the glory of His resurrection, through the same Christ Our Lord. Amen. Glory be * 3*

Psalm 51 is a psalm of David, when Nathan the prophet came to him after he had gone into Bathsheba. This is a prayer of repentance.

Now let us say the Psalm 51 with outstretched arms.

Psalm 51

Have mercy on me, God, in accord with your merciful love; in Your abundant compassion blot out my transgressions. Thoroughly wash away my guilt; and from my sin cleanse me. For I know my transgressions; my sin is always before me. Against You, You alone have I sinned; I have done what is evil in your eyes So that You are just in Your word, and without reproach in your judgment. Behold, I was born in guilt, in sin my mother conceived me. Behold, You desire true sincerity; and secretly You teach me wisdom. Cleanse me with hyssop, that I may be pure; wash me, and I will be whiter than snow. You will let me hear gladness and joy; the bones You have crushed will rejoice. Turn away Your face from my sins; blot out all my iniquities. A clean heart create for me, God; renew within me a steadfast spirit. Do not drive me from before your face, nor take from me your holy spirit. Restore to me the gladness of Your salvation; uphold me with a willing spirit. I will teach the wicked Your ways, that sinners may return to You. Rescue me from violent blood shed, God, my saving God, and my tongue will sing joyfully of Your justice .Lord, You will open my lips; and my mouth will proclaim Your praise. For You do not desire sacrifice or I would give it; a burnt offering You would not accept. My sacrifice, O God, is a contrite spirit; a contrite, humbled heart, O God, You will not scorn.

Now let us pray the Rosary. Go to Page 105 .

Act of Reparation

O Most Holy Virgin, and Our Mother, we listen with grief to the complaints of your Immaculate Heart surrounded with the thorns placed therein at every moment by the blasphemies and ingratitude of ungrateful humanity. We are moved by the ardent desire of loving you as Our Mother and of promising a true devotion to Your Immaculate Heart.

We therefore kneel before You to manifest the sorrow we feel for the grievances that people cause You, and to atone by our prayers and sacrifices for the offenses with which they return your love. Obtain for them and for us the pardon of so many sins. Hasten the conversion of sinners that they may love Jesus Christ and cease to offend the Lord, already so much offended. Turn your eyes of mercy toward us, that we may love God with all our heart on earth and enjoy Him forever in Heaven.

Act of Consecration to Mary

O my Queen, O my Mother, I love you and give myself to you. I give to you this day my eyes, my ears, my mouth, my heart, my whole self. Since I am yours, keep me and guard me as your child forever. Amen.

Now let us think of all our sins and shortcomings, and ask God for His forgiveness once again, by praying Psalm 51 (page 166) with outstretched arms.

Couple of minutes silence.

Now let us pray Psalm 91, for God's protection.

Psalm 91

You who dwell in the shelter of the Most High, who abide in the shade of the Almighty, Say to the LORD, "My refuge and fortress, my God in whom I trust." He will rescue you from the fowler's snare, from the destroying plague, He will shelter you with His pinions, and under His wings you may take refuge; His faithfulness is a protecting shield. You shall not fear the terror of the night nor the arrow that flies by day, Nor the pestilence that roams in darkness, nor the plague that ravages at noon. Though a thousand fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, near you it shall not come. You need simply watch; the punishment of the wicked you will see. Because you have the LORD for your refuge and have made the Most High your stronghold, No evil shall befall you, no affliction come near your tent. For he commands His angels with regard to you, to guard you wherever you go. With their hands they shall support you, lest you strike your foot against a stone. You can tread upon the asp and the viper, trample the lion and the dragon. Because he clings to me I will deliver him; because he knows my name I will set him on high. He will call upon me and I will answer; I will be with him in distress; I will deliver him and give him honor. With length of days I will satisfy him, and fill him with my saving power.

Now let us offer all our petitions to God with complete trust in Him.

Couple of minutes silence.

Let us seek God's pardon and mercy one more time by praying Psalm 51 with outstretched arms, and decide not to sin again.

Let us thank and praise God for everything especially for this opportunity for this hour of grace, and spent the remaining hour in silence.

O Sacrament Most Holy, O Sacrament Divine,
All Praise and All Thanksgiving be every moment
Thine.(3)

At the end of the hour: May the blessing of Almighty God,+ the Father, Son and the Holy Spirit come down upon you and remain with you always.

NOVENA TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

FOREWORD

The novena in honor of the Holy Spirit is the oldest of all novenas since it was first made at the direction of Our Lord Himself when He sent His apostles back to Jerusalem to await the coming of the Holy Spirit on the first Pentecost. It is still the only novena officially prescribed by the Church. Addressed to the Third Person of the Blessed Trinity, it is a powerful plea for the light and strength and love so sorely needed by every Christian.

ACT OF CONSECRATION TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

To be recited daily during the Novena On my knees I before the great multitude of heavenly witnesses I offer myself, soul and body to You, Eternal Spirit of God. I adore the brightness of Your purity, the unerring keenness of Your justice, and the might of Your love. You are the Strength and Light of my soul. In You I live and move and am. I desire never to grieve You by unfaithfulness to grace and I pray with all my heart to be kept from the smallest sin against You. Mercifully guard my every thought and grant that I may always watch for Your light, and listen to Your voice, and follow Your gracious inspirations. I cling to You and give myself to You and ask You, by Your compassion to watch over me in my weakness. Holding the pierced Feet of Jesus and looking at His Five Wounds, and trusting in His Precious Blood and adoring His opened Side and stricken Heart, I implore You, Adorable Spirit, Helper of my infirmity, to keep me in Your grace that I may never sin against You. Give me grace O Holy Spirit, Spirit of the Father and the Son to say to You always and everywhere, "Speak Lord for Your servant heareth." Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE SEVEN GIFTS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

To be recited daily during the Novena O Lord Jesus Christ Who, before ascending into heaven did promise to send the Holy Spirit to finish Your work in the souls of Your Apostles and Disciples, deign to grant the same Holy Spirit to me that He may perfect in my soul, the work of Your grace and Your love. Grant me the Spirit of Wisdom that I may despise the perishable things of this world and aspire only after the things that are eternal, the Spirit of Understanding to enlighten my mind with the light of Your divine truth, the Spirit on Counsel that I may ever choose the surest way of pleasing God and gaining heaven, the Spirit of Fortitude that I may bear my cross with You and that I may overcome with courage all the obstacles that oppose my salvation, the Spirit of Knowledge that I may know God and know myself and grow perfect in the science of the Saints, the Spirit of Piety that I may find the service of God sweet and amiable, and the Spirit of Fear that I may be filled with a loving reverence towards God and may dread in any way to displease Him. Mark me, dear Lord with the sign of Your true disciples, and animate me in all things with Your Spirit. Amen.

The Novena begins on the day after the Solemnity of the Ascension, Friday of the 6th Week of Easter, even if the Solemnity of the Ascension is transferred to the 7th Sunday.

FIRST DAY

(Friday after Ascension or Friday of 6th Week of Easter)

Holy Spirit! Lord of Light! From Your clear celestial height, Your pure beaming radiance give! The Holy Spirit Only one thing is important -- eternal salvation. Only one thing, therefore, is to be feared--sin? Sin is the result of ignorance, weakness, and indifference The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of Light, of Strength, and of Love. With His sevenfold gifts He enlightens the mind, strengthens the will, and inflames the heart with love of God. To ensure our salvation we ought to invoke the Divine Spirit daily, for "The Spirit helpeth our infirmity. We know not what we should pray for as we ought. But the Spirit Himself asketh for us." Prayer Almighty and eternal God, Who hast vouchsafed to regenerate us by water and the Holy Spirit, and hast given us forgiveness all sins, vouchsafe to send forth from heaven upon us your sevenfold Spirit, the Spirit of Wisdom and Understanding, the Spirit of Counsel and fortitude, the Spirit of Knowledge and Piety, and fill us with the Spirit of Holy Fear. Amen.

- Our Father and Hail Mary ONCE.

Glory be to the Father SEVEN TIMES.

- Act of Consecration, Prayer for the Seven Gifts

SECOND DAY (Saturday of 6th Week of Easter)

Come. Father of the poor. Come, treasures which endure; Come, Light of all that live! The Gift of Fear The gift of Fear fills us with a sovereign respect for God, and makes us dread nothing so much as to offend Him by sin. It is a fear that arises, not from the thought of hell, but from sentiments of reverence and filial submission to our heavenly Father. It is the fear that is the beginning of wisdom, detaching us from worldly pleasures that could in any way separate us from God. "They that fear the Lord will prepare their hearts, and in His sight will sanctify their souls." Prayer Come, O blessed Spirit of Holy Fear, penetrate my inmost heart, that I may set you, my Lord and God, before my face forever, help me to shun all things that can offend You, and make me worthy to appear before the pure eyes of Your Divine Majesty in heaven, where You live and reign in the unity of the ever Blessed Trinity, God world without end. Amen.

- Our Father and Hail Mary ONCE.

Glory be to the Father SEVEN TIMES.

- Act of Consecration, Prayer for the Seven Gifts

THIRD DAY

(7th Sunday of Easter or transferred Ascension)

Thou, of all consolers best, Visiting the troubled breast, Dost refreshing peace bestow. The Gift of Piety The gift of Piety begets in our hearts a filial affection for God as our most loving Father. It inspires us to love and respect for His sake persons and things consecrated to Him, as well as those who are vested with His authority, His Blessed Mother and the Saints, the Church and its visible Head, our parents and superiors, our country and its rulers. He who is filled with the gift of Piety finds the practice of his religion, not a burdensome duty, but a delightful service. Where there is love, there is no labor. Prayer Come, O Blessed Spirit of Piety, possess my heart. Enkindle therein such a love for God, that I may find satisfaction only in His service, and for His sake lovingly submit to all legitimate authority. Amen.

- Our Father and Hail Mary ONCE.

Glory be to the Father SEVEN TIMES.

- Act of Consecration, Prayer for the Seven Gifts

FOURTH DAY (Monday, 7th Week of Easter)

Thou in toil art comfort sweet, Pleasant coolness in the heat, solace in the midst of woe. The Gift of Fortitude By the gift of Fortitude the soul is strengthened against natural fear, and supported to the end in the performance of duty. Fortitude imparts to the will an impulse and energy which move it to under take without hesitancy the most arduous tasks, to face dangers, to trample under foot human respect, and to endure without complaint the slow martyrdom of even lifelong tribulation. "He that shall persevere unto the end, he shall be saved." Prayer Come, O Blessed Spirit of Fortitude, uphold my soul in time of trouble and adversity, sustain my efforts after holiness, strengthen my weakness, give me courage against all the assaults of my enemies, that I may never be overcome and separated from Thee, my God and greatest Good. Amen.

- Our Father and Hail Mary ONCE.

Glory be to the Father SEVEN TIMES.

- Act of Consecration, Prayer for the Seven Gifts

FIFTH DAY (Tuesday, 7th Week of Easter)

Light immortal! Light Divine! Visit Thou these hearts of Thine, And our inmost being fill! The Gift of Knowledge The gift of Knowledge enables the soul to evaluate created things at their true worth--in their relation to God. Knowledge unmask the pretense of creatures, reveals their emptiness, and points out their only true purpose as instruments in the service of God. It shows us the loving care of God even in adversity, and directs us to glorify Him in every circumstance of life. Guided by its light, we put first things first, and prize the friendship of God beyond all else. "Knowledge is a fountain of life to him that possesseth it." Prayer Come, O Blessed Spirit of Knowledge, and grant that I may perceive the will of the Father; show me the nothingness of earthly things, that I may realize their vanity and use them only for Thy glory and my own salvation, looking ever beyond them to Thee, and Thy eternal rewards. Amen.

- Our Father and Hail Mary ONCE.

Glory be to the Father SEVEN TIMES.

- Act of Consecration, Prayer for the Seven Gifts

SIXTH DAY (Wednesday, 7th Week of Easter)

If Thou take Thy grace away, nothing pure in man will stay, All his good is turn'd to ill. The Gift of Understanding Understanding, as a gift of the Holy Spirit, helps us to grasp the meaning of the truths of our holy religion BY faith we know them, but by Understanding we learn to appreciate and relish them. It enables us to penetrate the inner meaning of revealed truths and through them to be quickened to newness of life. Our faith ceases to be sterile and inactive, but inspires a mode of life that bears eloquent testimony to the faith that is in us; we begin to "walk worthy of God in all things pleasing, and increasing in the knowledge of God." Prayer Come, O Spirit of Understanding, and enlighten our minds, that we may know and believe all the mysteries of salvation; and may merit at last to see the eternal light in Thy Light; and in the light of glory to have a clear vision of Thee and the Father and the Son. Amen.

- Our Father and Hail Mary ONCE.

Glory be to the Father SEVEN TIMES.

- Act of Consecration, Prayer for the Seven Gifts

SEVENTH DAY (Thursday, 7th Week of Easter)

Heal our wounds--our strength renews; On our dryness pour Thy dew, Wash the stains of guilt away. The Gift of Counsel The gift of Counsel endows the soul with supernatural prudence, enabling it to judge promptly and rightly what must done, especially in difficult circumstances. Counsel applies the principles furnished by Knowledge and Understanding to the innumerable concrete cases that confront us in the course of our daily duty as parents, teachers, public servants, and Christian citizens. Counsel is supernatural common sense, a priceless treasure in the quest of salvation. "Above all these things, pray to the Most High, that He may direct thy way in truth." Prayer Come, O Spirit of Counsel, help and guide me in all my ways, that I may always do Thy holy will. Incline my heart to that which is good; turn it away from all that is evil, and direct me by the straight path of Thy commandments to that goal of eternal life for which I long.

- Our Father and Hail Mary ONCE.

Glory be to the Father SEVEN TIMES.

- Act of Consecration, Prayer for the Seven Gifts

EIGHTH DAY (Friday, 7th Week of Easter)

Bend the stubborn heart and will, melt the frozen warm the chill. Guide the steps that go astray! The Gift of Wisdom Embodying all the other gifts, as charity embraces all the other virtues, Wisdom is the most perfect of the gifts. Of wisdom it is written "all good things came to me with her, and innumerable riches through her hands." It is the gift of Wisdom that strengthens our faith, fortifies hope, perfects charity, and promotes the practice of virtue in the highest degree. Wisdom enlightens the mind to discern and relish things divine, in the appreciation of which earthly joys lose their savor, whilst the Cross of Christ yields a divine sweetness according to the words of the Savior: "Take up thy cross and follow me, for my yoke is sweet and my burden light. Prayer Come, O Spirit of Wisdom, and reveal to my soul the mysteries of heavenly things, their exceeding greatness, power and beauty. Teach me to love them above and beyond all the passing joys and satisfactions of earth. Help me to attain them and possess them for ever. Amen.

NINTH DAY (Saturday, Vigil of Pentecost)

Thou, on those who evermore Thee confess and Thee Adore, in Thy sevenfold gift, Descend; Give Them Comfort when they die; Give them Life with Thee on high; Give them joys which never end. Amen The Fruits of the Holy Spirit The gifts of the Holy Spirit perfect the supernatural virtues by enabling us to practice them with greater docility to divine inspiration. As we grow in the knowledge and love of God under the direction of the Holy Spirit, our service becomes more sincere and generous, the practice of virtue more perfect. Such acts of virtue leave the heart filled with joy and consolation and are known as Fruits of the Holy Spirit. These Fruits in turn render the practice of virtue more attractive and become a powerful incentive for still greater efforts in the service of God, to serve Whom is to reign. Prayer Come, O Divine Spirit, fill my heart with Thy heavenly fruits, Thy charity, joy, peace, patience, benignity, goodness, faith, mildness, and temperance, that I may never weary in the service of God, but by continued faithful submission to Thy inspiration may merit to be united eternally with Thee in the love of the Father and the Son. Amen.
