Papal Intention for October

For mental health ministry

Let us pray that the mental health ministry be established throughout the Church, helping to overcome the stigma and discrimination of persons with mental illnesses.

Parish Hymn - After Communion

¶ Jesus! my Lord, my God, my all!
How can I love Thee as I ought?
And, how revere this wondrous gift,
So far surpassing hope or thought?
{Sweet Sacrament! we Thee adore!
O, make us love Thee more and more!} * 2¶

Written by
THE FAITHFUL DISCIPLE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

A mentor once told me that there is no sweeter sound than that of one's own name. It communicates that one is seen, known, and cared for. We read in Isaiah today that God has chosen Cyrus and has called him by name. In the Letter to the Thessalonians, Paul and his followers "give thanks to God always" for all in the community, knowing that each brother and sister is "loved by God" and "chosen." And although these words are written about Cyrus and the Thessalonians, we trust that God speaks these words to us as well. We have each been chosen. Our Father calls each of us by name. It is sometimes difficult to believe that God desires me and chooses me individually. It is a love that I often fail to reciprocate, despite my desire to do so. But that does not diminish the love God has for me. I am not lost in the crowd of history and humanity. Each of us was created with love and rejoiced over by our heavenly Father.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

When Jesus is asked in today's Gospel about the taxes due to Caesar, he does not falter with his response. We must live the truth of our faith in the world, but ultimately, what the world asks of us is not the same as what our Creator desires. Taxes are paid out of obligation, but God asks for our love. In using the talents God has given us in caring for our brothers and sisters, we acknowledge the fullness of the majesty and wonder of our Creator. We do not have to isolate ourselves from this world, but we must remember that we were not created for this world. We have already been chosen and claimed by our loving Father. And it is to him that we offer the gift of our heart, which is infinitely more valuable than coins.

REFLECT

In the Gospel of Matthew, Christ also says, "For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be." (6:21) In light of today's Gospel, we must also consider whether our participation in society in any way prevents us from offering ourselves totally to God. Spend some time reflecting on what it is that you truly treasure. Do you reserve the offering of your heart for God? Or are you giving to the world what should be reserved for God?

MESSAGE FROM THE SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

By Derek Stadler, member & secretary

Twenty-ninth Sunday In Ordinary Time

In the Gospel today, Jesus says: "Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." When God is the center of our lives there is no problem with giving others their due.

Through your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you are helping your neighbor who is hungry, hopeless and frightened to know that they belong to God.

Our St. Ignatius/Holy Family conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul is able to help our neighbors in need through the generosity of our parishioners. Each time you donate you are helping those suffering in our community as the members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul bring your gift directly to the poor and suffering. If you want to learn more about the Society or make a donation, please contact Peter Ingenito (petving@optonline.net) or scan the QR code using the camera on your phone which will connect you directly to our site.

Thank you for your generosity.

On Sunday, October 4th, Grade 2 and Catch-up 2 celebrated their First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion Recommitment Mass. At this Mass, parents and children recommitted themselves to continuing their faith formation as the students begin their second year of preparation to receive these important sacraments.

The Mass was celebrated by Fr. Shibi, who blessed the Communion Chalice pins that the students will proudly wear on the day of their First Holy Communion. These blessed pins are a special reminder of the Eucharist and of the students' commitment to growing in their faith as they prepare to receive Jesus in the Holy Eucharist.

We thank our parents, students, catechists, and Fr. Shibi for making this Recommitment Mass a beautiful and meaningful celebration. We pray that God continues to bless our students as they prepare to receive these special sacraments.

Please tune in to our YouTube Channel and subscribe for notifications of live streamed events

The month of October we honor Our Blessed Mother with the daily recitation of the rosary each morning at* 8:25 am. *We invite all to come, and pray this beautiful prayer together as a parish community. Various ministries have been asked to lead on a particular day but we encourage all our parishioners to come and if they wish to lead a decade, please contact Peggy Gill at tomjgill@aol.com or at 516-532-3006.

Rockville Centre diocesan Bishop John Barres says,
"We will never submit to New York's culture of death."

Four orders of women religious are joining the Diocese of Rockville Centre, Catholic Health System of Long Island, and nursing homes in Queens, the Bronx, Westchester, Hartsdale, and Hawthorne, NY, in suing New York State over its new physician assisted suicide law.

The Carmelite Sisters for the Aged and Infirm, Dominican Sisters of Hawthorne, Missionary Sisters of St. Benedict, and Little Sisters of the Poor, along with the diocese, nursing homes, and the Catholic health system that runs six hospitals on Long Island, contend that the law would force them to "abandon their religious beliefs" by mandating that they counsel patients about assisted suicide and help them qualify for and receive life-ending drugs.

"New York is forcing sick and dying people to consider suicide at their lowest moment, regardless of whether they ask for it or not," said lead attorney Mark Rienzi, president of Becket, the religious liberty law firm representing the Catholic plaintiffs.

"Worse, it's conscripting the nuns who care for them into its suicide cult on pain of crushing fines and professional ruin," Rienzi said. "That is both unconscionable and unconstitutional. We're confident the federal courts will put a stop to it."

Bishop John Barres said in a statement. "Assisted suicide is a grave moral failure that puts the elderly, the disabled, and those suffering from mental and emotional illness at risk of abuse and manipulation. Christ the Divine Physician calls us to accompany the sick and dying with compassion, not abandon them to death. The court should protect that millennia-old mission."

Catholic Daughters of the Americas Court Queen of Angels No. 869 is Sponsoring The St Ignatius Loyola Spiritual Adoption Program

This month, parishioners are asked to participate in this wonderful program. The sign up for the Spiritual Adoption Program begins this weekend. This will be our 12th year!

Everyone loves the beauty and innocence of a baby. As an expression of that love, St. Ignatius Loyola Parish will begin a Spiritual Adoption program for young and old alike next week.
The members of St. Ignatius Loyola parish family will have the opportunity to "spiritually adopt" a child who is newly conceived this month. Not all newly conceived babies are allowed to be born. In fact more than 4,000 babies will lose their lives to abortion each day. It is these babies that you're being asked to pray for and "adopt."
You may "adopt" a child individually or as a family by using the Adoption Certificates found in the pews. You are asked to name the child for whom you will be praying, thereby giving the baby the humanity he or she deserves. You will be asked to pray for your unborn child and all unborn children, for the power of prayer is great. You will receive monthly reports on the third weekend of each month through the parish bulletin and posters describing your baby's development and your child will be "born" in June.
There are millions of unborn babies desperately in need of your prayers. Won't you please "spiritually adopt" one and share the love God has given you?

Las Hijas Católicas de las Américas Corte Reina de los Ángeles No. 869 está patrocinando el Programa de Adopción Espiritual de San Ignacio de Loyola

En este mes, pedimos a los feligreses que participen en este maravilloso programa. La inscripción para el Programa de Adopción Espiritual comienza este fin de semana. Este será nuestro duodécimo año!

Todo el mundo ama la belleza y la inocencia de un bebé. Como expresión de ese amor, La Parroquia de San Ignacio de Loyola comenzará un programa de Adopción Espiritual la próxima semana, para los jóvenes y adultos.

Los miembros de la familia parroquial de San Ignacio de Loyola tendrán la oportunidad de "adoptar espiritualmente" un niño recién concebido este mes. No a todos los bebés concebidos les es permitido nacer. De hecho más de 4.000 bebés pierden sus vidas al ser abortados, cada dia. Son estos los bebés que se les está pidiendo para que oren y los "adopten."

Usted puede "adpotar" un niño de forma individual o en familia, mediante el uso de los Certificados de Adopción que se encuentran en las bancas. Se le pide que le de un nombre al niño por quien está orando, dando así al bebé la humanidad que él o ella se merece. Se la pedirá que ore por su bebé adoptado, y todos los niños no nacidos, pues el poder de la oración es grande. Usted recibirá informes mensuales, el tercer fin de semana de cada mes, a través de boletín de la parroquia y carteles que describirán el desarrollo del bebé, hasta su "nacimiento" en junio.

Hay millones de niños no nacidos que necesita urgentemente de tus oraciones. ¿No te gustaría "adoptar uno espiritualmente" y compartir el amor que Dios te ha dado?

XXIX Domingo Ordinario

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Evangelio según San Mateo (Mateo 22, 15-21)

En aquel tiempo, se reunieron los fariseos para ver la manera de hacer caer a Jesús, con preguntas insidiosas, en algo de que pudieran acusarlo.

Le enviaron, pues, a algunos de sus secuaces, junto con algunos del partido de Herodes, para que le dijeran: "Maestro, sabemos que eres sincero y enseñas con verdad el camino de Dios, y que nada te arredra, porque no buscas el favor de nadie. Dinos, pues, qué piensas: ¿Es lícito o no pagar el tributo al César?"

Conociendo Jesús la malicia de sus intenciones, les contestó: "Hipócritas, ¿por qué tratan de sorprenderme? Enséñenme la moneda del tributo". Ellos le presentaron una moneda. Jesús les preguntó: "¿De quién es esta imagen y esta inscripción?" Le respondieron: "Del César". Y Jesús concluyó: "Den, pues, al César lo que es del César, y a Dios lo que es de Dios".
