Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Ex 22:20-26 | 1 Thes 1:5c-10 | Mt 22:34-40

Written by THE FAITHFUL DISCIPLE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

"You shall love your neighbor as yourself." Sounds simple, right? Not so much. Jesus' words in today's Gospel can't help but take us back to that age-old question: "And just who is my neighbor?" According to the Lord's words in the reading from Exodus, our neighbors are the alien, the widow, and the orphan. Documents from the USCCB such as "Welcoming the Stranger Among Us: Unity in Diversity" and its writings on the Life and Dignity of the Human Person clearly reflect the position of the U.S. Bishops that it is essential for public policy to respect the dignity of all. While challenging at times, our faith doesn't offer guidance only for interior, spiritual realities. Indeed, our Church proclaims that we must let the demands of the Gospel shape the whole of our society. We are – to use St. John Paul II's phrase – to work to build a "culture of life," a "civilization of love." In the end, Catholic Social Teaching is nothing but the Church's effort to live Christ's call to love our neighbor as ourselves in the wider human community.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

In response to the scholar of the law's question about which commandment is the greatest, Jesus responds by saying that it is to "love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind." Heart, soul, and mind are words that describe the innermost self. The Lord – it is clear – wants to be loved fully, by all that we have and are. He wants to be loved as the only Lord in our lives; there can be no other. St. Paul praises the Thessalonians for turning "to God from idols to serve the living and true God." In other words, they underwent a change of heart, where they turned away from loving things that were not God to loving and serving the only true God. This change of heart has enabled them to become witnesses to others of Christ's love. In our own lives, we must also undergo conversion if we wish to bear authentic witness to the Lord and to our faith. What are the idols we need to let go of to surrender our hearts, souls, and minds more fully to the Lord?

STUDY

As Catholics, we all have a responsibility to form our consciences and deepen our knowledge of the Church's teaching surrounding critical issues facing our world today. Spend some time this week familiarizing yourself with the Seven Themes of Catholic Social Teaching, which are "a rich treasure of wisdom about building a just society and living lives of holiness amid the challenges of modern society." (USCCB)

MESSAGE FROM THE SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

By Derek Stadler, member & secretary

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In this Sunday's Gospel we find the truth that loving God isn't merely a matter of fervor in our hearts, but that it must be expressed in doing good for the sake of others.

This month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to show that we indeed love our neighbors by assisting families, providing food, gifts, and money for utility and rent bills.

Our St. Ignatius/Holy Family conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul is able to help our neighbors in need through the generosity of our parishioners. Each time you donate you are helping those suffering in our community as the members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul bring your gift directly to the poor and suffering. If you want to learn more about the Society or make a donation, please contact Peter Ingenito (petving@optonline.net) or scan the QR code using the camera on your phone which will connect you directly to our site.

Thank you for your generosity.

The Greatest Commandment

What does Jesus say the greatest commandment is? At first you might think that the most important thing would be to not kill anyone, wouldn't you? But that's not what He says! The very most important thing is to love God with our whole heart and soul and mind! It means that we must do everything we do for love of God, and live our whole life completely for Him.

But how can we love God so much? Well, we can practice little by little, loving Him more each day. Paying attention at Mass every Sunday and saying a prayer every day would be a good start. Every morning tell God that you will do everything for Him today and every night before you go to bed, thank God for all that He has done for you and tell Him you're sorry for the bad things you did that day. Then try to think about God through the day.

The second greatest commandment that Jesus tells us is that we should love others as much as we love ourselves. If we really love God then we will want to love other people too, because God loves them! If you don't love others, it shows that you don't really love God as much as you should. What can you do today to start loving God more?

XXX Domingo Ordinario

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Evangelio según San Mateo* (Mateo 22, 34-40)

En aquel tiempo, habiéndose enterado los fariseos de que Jesús había dejado callados a los saduceos, se acercaron a él. Uno de ellos, que era doctor de la ley, le preguntó para ponerlo a prueba: "Maestro, ¿cuál es el mandamiento más grande de la ley?"

Jesús le respondió: "Amarás al Señor, tu Dios, con todo tu corazón, con toda tu alma y con toda tu mente. Éste es el más grande y el primero de los mandamientos. Y el segundo es semejante a éste: Amarás a tu prójimo como a ti mismo. En estos dos mandamientos se fundan toda la ley y los profetas".

Palabra del Señor, *Gloria a ti Señor Jesús

San Juan Pablo II, papa

Homilía: El amor es fundamento de la moral

En el Evangelio de hoy un doctor de la ley pregunta a Jesús: "Maestro, ¿cuál es el mandamiento principal de la ley?" (Mt 22, 36). Cristo responde: "Amarás al Señor tu Dios con todo tu corazón, con toda tu alma, con todo tu ser. Este mandamiento es el principal y primero. El segundo es semejante a él: Amarás a tu prójimo como a ti mismo. Estos dos mandamientos sostienen la ley entera y los Profetas" (Mt 22, 37-40).

Con estas palabras Cristo define cuál es el fundamento último de toda la moral humana, esto es, aquello sobre lo que se apoya toda la construcción de esta moral. Cristo afirma que se apoya en definitiva sobre estos dos mandamientos. Si amas a Dios sobre todas las cosas y a tu prójimo como a ti mismo, si amas verdadera y realmente, entonces sin duda "no vejarás", ni "oprimirás", "no explotarás a ninguno, en particular a la viuda y al huérfano", "no serás tampoco usurero" y si "tomas en prenda... lo devolverás" (Ex 22, 20-25).
