Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Is 5:1-7 | Phil 4:6-9 | Mt 21:33-43

Written by THE FAITHFUL DISCIPLE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

I enjoy thinking about what it would have been like to hear Jesus' teachings as a first-century Jew. When Jesus calls out the current tenants of the vineyard as being unfaithful, disobedient servants, however, it may have left the crowd feeling a bit anxious. And really, Jesus could say this to each of us at times because, like the wild grapes in the vineyard, when left to our own devices we also have a tendency to fall into sin and produce unsavory fruit. But we also know that Jesus is the Prince of Peace, and he wants our lives in his vineyard to be characterized by that peace. Christ is not condemning, but he is the Son sent to call the tenants back into communion with the Father. He does the same with us too. In acts of great mercy, Christ continues to call us again and again – even after we reject him and turn away from him. Through the Church, the sacraments, the intercession of the saints, and the holy men and women who proclaim the Gospel today, God continues to seek us out so we might know the peace of fruitful service in his vineyard.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Christ longs to give us peace that surpasses all of our fears and anxieties, and he does so by inviting us to be good stewards of his created world and the community of believers. He invites us to work in the vineyard – to offer our gifts and talents to bring forth the fruits of love and joy that overflow from the work of the Holy Spirit within us. We do so with the assurance that salvation is not dependent on us. Our Father has sown the seeds and has prepared the vineyard; we are simply called to reap and preserve what he has brought into being. And so we trust in the overwhelming mercy of God and humbly accept the love and communion that we do not deserve.

REFLECT

Just as the landowner sent messengers to the tenants of the vineyard, God sends people to us to proclaim the Gospel. Who are those people in your life who are calling you to a deeper relationship with God? How can you open your heart to hear the message of love and peace that they are proclaiming?

A message from our Treasurer, John Toner.

I hope this message finds you in peace and grace. Last week was our annual Friends of the Poor Walk, our largest fundraiser of the year shining a light on poverty that often goes unseen in our Hicksville community. Thank you to everyone who supported us. Even though we have hung up our walking shoes until next year, there is still time to donate this year via our website.

Why is your donation important? As members of the Society of St Vincent de Paul, we often speak about our spiritual and financial support of poor needy households in the St Ignatius Loyola and Holy Family communities. I would like to take this opportunity to explain 'poor' between past and present poverty environments.

In the past 'poor' often meant living on the margins of society, lacking a great deal, but still able to work and maintain some dignity. People were poor, but they were not without options. Today, destitution is different. It's not just about not having enough, but about being trapped in situations that make it impossible to escape – without work, without housing, without access to basic needs. The poor of the past could still hope for a better day, the destitute of today often have no way out. They live in environments, often with no steady income, no safe place to call home, and no resources to meet the most basic needs. Many faces hunger daily, lack proper clothing, or struggle to keep the lights on. For them each day is not just difficult, it is a fight for survival.

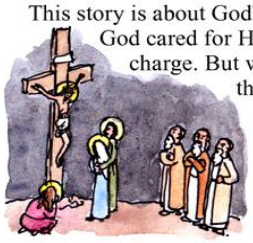
Your prayers, generosity and compassion make it possible for us to bring hope where there are despair and dignity where there is hardship. Every donation, every act of kindness, every prayer helps us to be the feet of Christ to those who need him most. Let us remember the word of our LORD: "Whatever you did for one of the least of the brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me."

May we continue to serve with open hearts knowing that together we can be a lifeline for the truly destitute.

GOD BLESS YOU!

Tenants of the Vineyard

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus tells the parable of the vineyard that was leased out to tenants. When the owner's servants came to collect the pay, the tenants beat them. When the owner sent his son, they killed the son because they thought they would be able to take the vineyard if the son was dead.



This story is about God's people. For hundreds of years God cared for His people, leaving leaders in charge. But when He sent His Son Jesus, the leaders did not respect Him. In fact, they killed Him on the cross! God's people were like the vineyard and the leaders were like the tenants who killed the son.

In a way your life is like a vineyard too. God has given it to you and cared for you all your life. When God wants you to do something for Him, you have the choice of doing what He asks or being like the bad tenants and refusing. Whenever we don't do what is right, we are offending Jesus. But you don't want to be like those bad tenants, do you? Make sure that everything you do is for God!

Answer to front puzzle: They killed him.
Answer to Word-Find: God sent His Son.

Jesus told this PARABLE: There was a landowner who planted a VINEYARD and built a tower and a WINE PRESS. When he went away, he LEASED it to tenants. In time, he sent SERVANTS to get his PRODUCE, but the tenants BEAT one, killed one, and STONED another. The man sent more servants, but the TENANTS did the same thing AGAIN. Finally, he sent his SON, thinking that they would RESPECT him at least. But the tenants saw the son coming and said, "Here comes the HEIR. If we kill him we can get his INHERITANCE!" So they SEIZED him, THREW him out and KILLED him too!

Jesus asked, "What will the land OWNER do when he COMES?"

The people said, "Put the tenants to DEATH and lease the vineyard to tenants who WILL pay."

A wonderful visit with Most Rev. Bishop John O. Barres and Rev. Fr. Lachlan, who warmly received the Superior General of Bethany Fathers, Fr. Shajan Kuttiyil OIC. Grateful for their hospitality, ongoing support, and shared commitment to serving our community.

On Sunday, September 20, 2027, at the Cathedral of St. Agnes in Rockville Center, Bishop Romero presented the Catechetical Service Awards to catechists who have faithfully served their parishes for 10 or more years.

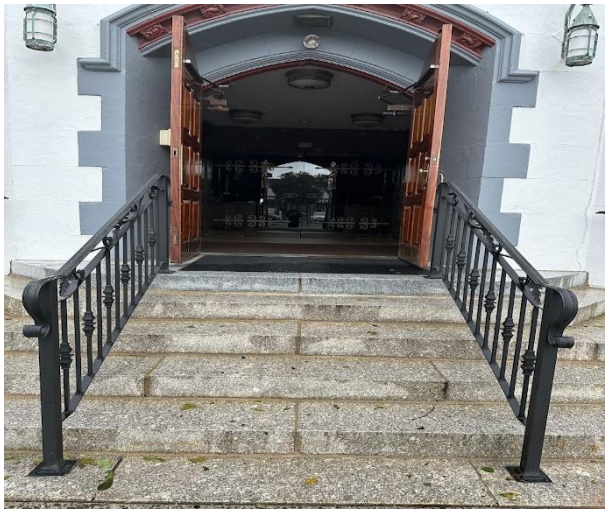
We would like to congratulate the following catechists from St. Ignatius Loyola Parish for their dedication, faith, and service in providing faith formation to the students and adults of our parish:

- Migdalia Velasquez - 10 years (OCIA)
- Mary Sullivan - 15 years (Religious Education)
- Joseph Vinceguerra - 20 Years (Religious Education)
- Theresa Dunckley - 25 years (Religious Education)

We are deeply grateful for your many years of dedicated service to the Religious Education and OCIA programs.

May God continue to bless you abundantly

A heartfelt thank you to Peter Nguyen and his wife, Mary Nguyen, for generously sponsoring the new railing in front of the church! We are deeply grateful for your continuous support, dedication, and loving contribution to our parish community. May God bless you both abundantly for your generosity!



On Sunday, September 27, 2026, the St. Ignatius Loyola Religious Education program hosted a beautiful Mass celebrated by Fr. Shibi and Superior General Fr. Shajan Kuttiyil OIC. This special Mass was held for our Grade 1 and Catch-up 1 students, who are committing themselves to the first year of the two-year First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion program. During the Mass, the students presented their names at the altar as a sign of their commitment to growing in their faith and to preparing to receive these important sacraments.

At this Mass, we also celebrated the commitment of catechists, who generously give their time, dedication, faith, and service to the children and adults participating in our Religious Education and OCIA programs at St. Ignatius Loyola during the 2026-2027 school year.

We would like to thank Fr. Shajan for blessing us with his presence and Fr. Shibi for his continued support and prayers.

We are grateful for the commitment of our students, catechists, and families as we begin another year of faith formation. May God bless them throughout the year and guide them as they continue to grow in faith, knowledge, and love of Jesus Christ.

XXVII Domingo Ordinario

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Evangelio según San Mateo* (Mateo 21, 33-43)

En aquel tiempo, Jesús dijo a los sumos sacerdotes y a los ancianos del pueblo esta parábola: "Había una vez un propietario que plantó un viñedo, lo rodeó con una cerca, cavó un lagar en él, construyó una torre para el vigilante y luego lo alquiló a unos viñadores y se fue de viaje.
Llegado el tiempo de la vendimia, envió a sus criados para pedir su parte de los frutos a los viñadores; pero éstos se apoderaron de los criados, golpearon a uno, mataron a otro y a otro más lo apedrearon.
Envió de nuevo a otros criados, en mayor número que los primeros, y los trataron del mismo modo.
Por último, les mandó a su propio hijo, pensando: 'A mi hijo lo respetarán'. Pero cuando los viñadores lo vieron, se dijeron unos a otros: 'Éste es el heredero. Vamos a matarlo y nos quedaremos con su herencia'. Le echaron mano, lo sacaron del viñedo y lo mataron.
Ahora, díganme: cuando vuelva el dueño del viñedo, ¿qué hará con esos viñadores?" Ellos le respondieron: "Dará muerte terrible a esos desalmados y arrendará el viñedo a otros viñadores, que le entreguen los frutos a su tiempo".
Entonces Jesús les dijo: "¿No han leído nunca en la Escritura: La piedra que desecharon los constructores, es ahora la piedra angular. Esto es obra del Señor y es un prodigio admirable?
Por esta razón les digo que les será quitado a ustedes el Reino de Dios y se le dará a un pueblo que produzca sus frutos".
Palabra del Señor, Gloria a ti Señor Jesús

Benedicto XVI, papa Ángelus (02-10-2011): Anclados en la verdad

El Evangelio de este domingo concluye con una amonestación de Jesús, particularmente severa, dirigida a los jefes de los sacerdotes y a los ancianos del pueblo: «Por eso os digo que se os quitará a vosotros el reino de Dios y se dará a un pueblo que produzca sus frutos» (Mt 21, 43). Son palabras que hacen pensar en la gran responsabilidad de quien en cada época, está llamado a trabajar en la viña del Señor, especialmente con función de autoridad, e impulsan a renovar la plena fidelidad a Cristo. Él es «la piedra que desecharon los constructores», (cf. *Mt*21, 42), porque lo consideraron enemigo de la ley y peligroso para el orden público, pero él mismo, rechazado y crucificado, resucitó, convirtiéndose en la «piedra angular» en la que se pueden apoyar con absoluta seguridad los fundamentos de toda existencia humana y del mundo entero. De esta verdad habla la parábola de los viñadores infieles, a los que un hombre confió su viña para que la cultivaran y recogieran los frutos. El propietario de la viña representa a Dios mismo, mientras que la viña simboliza a su pueblo, así como la vida que él nos da para que, con su gracia y nuestro compromiso, hagamos el bien. San Agustín comenta que «Dios nos cultiva como un campo para hacernos mejores» (Sermo 87, 1, 2: PL 38, 531).
